Iran ramps up missile strikes as Mojtaba signals no let-up

IDF said it hit a critical nuclear site near Tehran; oil jumps to $100 per barrel

DUBAI

IRAN continued its missile attacks on Gulf neighbours across the region and Israel on Thursday, the 13th day of the war, as its newly-elected supreme leader Mojtaba Khamenei vowed to continue attacking Gulf neighbours till its objectives are achieved.

The IDF said it hit a "critical" nuclear site near Tehran. The site near Tehran, identified by the military as the Taleghan compound, was hit during waves of strikes, IDF said on Thursday.

Iran said it wants to ensure that a war will not be imposed again on it in the future, deputy foreign minister Majid Takht-Ravanchi told AFP. "We want to see that war is not going to be imposed again on Iran," said Takht-Ravanchi in an interview in Tehran. Iran's Revolutionary Guards vowed to keep the strategic Strait of Hormuz closed. The minister also rebuffed US claims and said Iran is not laying mines in the Strait of Hormuz.

German shipowners Hapag-Lloyd said that one of their cargo vessels in the Gulf caught fire after being "hit with shrapnel" overnight, adding that no one was injured. Only vessels from China and a a few countries that Iran has recognised were allowed to pass through the Strait of Hormuz. "Some countries have already talked to us about passing the strait and we have cooperated with them," said Takht-Ravanchi. The International Maritime Organization (IMO) announced an "extraordinary session" next week to discuss threats to shipping in the Middle East and particularly in the Strait of Hormuz.

WAR WATCH

The US military has said it is "not ready" to escort tankers through the critical Strait of Hormuz because all its assets are focused on striking Iran.The Israeli military moved further into southern Lebanon, telling residents to "move immediately north of the Zahrani River", 40 kilometres (25 miles) from the Israeli border. It said Iran-backed Lebanese group Hezbollah had launched "approximately 200 rockets" towards it overnight, in what it said was the biggest barrage of the war so far.

A series of powerful explosions hit western Tehran, an AFP journalist said.Blasts were also heard over Jerusalem, AFP journalists said, as the Israeli military reported missiles fired from Iran.

Dubai reported a drone attack and fallen debris in two locations while Kuwait's airport was damaged in yet another strike on the facility. Brent crude jumped more than nine percent to as high as $101.59 a barrel, while West Texas Intermediate was also up more nine percent to hit $95.97. AP

Ukraine awaits White House nod for drone deal

KYIV

UKRAINE is awaiting White House approval for a major drone production agreement proposed by Kyiv last year, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said on Thursday, as countries scramble to modernise their air defenses after the Iran war exposed shortcomings.

The proposed US-Ukraine deal would cover various types of drones and air defenses that operate as a single system capable of protecting against swarms of hundreds or even thousands of Iranian-designed Shahed drones and missiles, Zelenskyy said on social media.

"We have not yet had the opportunity to sign this document," Zelenskyy said.

Russia, which invaded its neighbor just over four years ago, has fired more than 57,000 Shahed drones at Ukraine, the Ukrainian Foreign Ministry said earlier this week. It launched more than 800 drones and decoys in its biggest nighttime barrage of Ukraine. Iran has responded to joint US-Israeli strikes by firing the same type of drones at targets in the West Asia. AP
