In Sabarimala U-turn, Kerala backs tradition on entry of women

Times News Network

CPM had supported the 2018 SC verdict allowing the entry of women of menstruating age into the Sabarimala temple

Thiruvananthapuram: The LDF govt in Kerala decided Friday to back a Supreme Court affidavit seeking steps to preserve the customs and traditions of Sabarimala, aligning with the Travancore Devaswom Board's position and reconsidering its earlier stance of supporting the entry of women of all ages to the shrine. The shift in the state govt's stand came after the CPM state secretariat came out in favour of traditions.

"The CPM state secretariat decided that, as required, the Kerala govt may give an appropriate response (in the Supreme Court) after examining its legal and constitutional aspects," CPM state secretary M V Govindan said.

He said the party had always been respectful of the sentiments of the faithful and wanted a decision on Sabarimala to be taken after consulting experts in the field. "We have to reply to seven questions, and none of them ask whether women should be allowed entry into Sabarimala or not. It is not just about Sabarimala; it is a constitutional issue before the apex court that concerns all religions," Govindan said.

CPM had supported the 2018 Supreme Court verdict allowing the entry of women of menstruating age into the temple. With review petitions now under consideration, the apex court asked the aggrieved parties, including the state govt, to clarify their stand by March 14.

The judgment had triggered widespread protests and a sharp political divide in the state. The upcoming assembly election has only sharpened the divide.

Maha anti-conversion bill proposes 7-year jail, ₹1L fine

Makes Offence Non-Bailable, Prescribes ₹5L Fine For 'Mass Conversions'

Chaitanya.Marpakwar

The bill tabled in assembly says 'forceful' and 'involuntary' religious conversions in the state are increasing. Civil society bodies have opposed the bill, saying laws are being weaponised to create a climate of fear against inter-faith marriages

Mumbai: Maharashtra govt on Friday introduced a bill with stringent provisions to prevent religious conversions through coercion, fraud, or marriage if it involves inducement, coercion or deceit, joining other BJP-governed states that have enacted 'freedom of religion' laws.

The Freedom of Religion Bill, 2026, tabled in the legislative assembly for debate sets a prison term of seven years for persons "involved in unlawful conversions on the pretext of marriage" and a fine of Rs 1 lakh. Treating the offence as non-bailable, the bill makes it mandatory for an officer heading a police station to register a complaint.

Civil society bodies have opposed it, saying laws are being weaponised to create a climate of fear against inter-faith marriages.

The bill says any child born out of a marriage or a "relationship in the nature of a marriage" due to unlawful conversion shall be "deemed to belong to the religion of the mother before such marriage or relationship".

It mandates that any person intending to convert, as well as any individual or institution organising a conversion ceremony, must give notice in a prescribed form at least 60 days in advance to the competent authority. Upon receiving this, the authority will display the details on the notice board of its office as well as at the office of the village panchayat or the local authority concerned. It will invite objections from the public within 30 days of its publication.

The bill requires that the converted person and individual or institution organising the ceremony submit a declaration to the authority within 21 days after the conversion. It allows relatives by blood, marriage or adoption to lodge an FIR if they suspect unlawful conversion.

The bill also prescribes a jail term of seven years along with a fine of Rs 5 lakh for those "involved" in mass conversions. Repeat individual offenders may get a jail sentence of 10 years and fine of Rs 5 lakh. Inducements that may be treated as illegal include gifts, employment, education, a better lifestyle or divine healing.

The burden of proof that a conversion was not carried out in violation of the provisions of the Act will lie on the person who caused, assisted or abetted the conversion.

The bill, described as draconian by critics, says "forceful" and "involuntary" religious conversions in the state are increasing. "The right to freedom of religion guaranteed under the Constitution of India is not absolute, but is subject to public order, morality, health and to other provisions of Part III of the Constitution relating to the fundamental rights of citizens," says the bill.

Dolphy D'Souza of the Bombay Catholic Sabha said, "We are very disappointed that the bill was tabled without discussions with various stakeholders who are going to be affected. It takes away the right to one's conscience to follow the religion of their choice or marry a partner of their choice. We urge the opposition to raise their voices and also demand that it be referred to a select committee for discussion as some of the clauses are draconian, to say the least."

Legal challenges against anti-conversion laws by civil rights groups such as Citizens for Justice and Peace have been taken up by HCs in Karnataka, UP, Uttarakhand and MP. Sections of these laws have been stayed and states have gone before SC.

IndiGo follows AI, to levy surcharge on fares from today

Times News Network

IndiGo will levy Rs 425 as fuel charge on domestic and Indian subcontinent flights

New Delhi/Mumbai: With oil on fire amid the raging US-Israel versus Iran war, IndiGo has followed Air India group and decided to levy an additional fuel charge between Rs 425 and Rs 2,300 from March 14 on all its domestic and international flights, citing "the significant surge in fuel prices following the ongoing geopolitical issues".

The additional charge will apply to all new bookings made from 00.01 hrs on March 14 across domestic and international routes, the airline said in a press statement on Friday.

The announcement of the cess, which has been levied from time to time by airlines globally over the past two decades during periods of global crisis, comes three days after Air India group's move.

"IATA's 'jet fuel monitor' indicates an over 85% increase in fuel prices for the region. ATF represents a significant share of airlines' operating cost. This sudden and steep increase will have a material impact on all airlines' costs and network, including IndiGo's. While offsetting the entire impact of this fuel price surge requires a very substantial adjustment to fares, IndiGo has introduced a relatively smaller amount as a fuel charge keeping in mind the consequential burden on customers," the statement said.

IndiGo will levy Rs 425 as fuel charge on domestic and Indian subcontinent flights, Rs 900 on West Asia flights, Rs 1,800 on southeast Asia, China and Africa flights and Rs 2,300 on Europe flights.

Air India group started levying a fuel surcharge between Rs 399 and $200 on its flights beginning Thursday, saying while it "regrets" the same, "some flights would be unable to cover operating costs and would have to be cancelled" if the surcharge is not applied.

For years, airlines in India have been seeking some relief on excise and GST on fuel, to no avail.

First-year IIT-Delhi student dies by suicide

New Delhi: A first-year BTech student of IIT-Delhi is suspected to have died by suicide on the campus on Thursday. According to police, preliminary investigation suggests depression may have led to the incident. No suicide note was recovered from the spot.

Cops at Kishangarh police station received information about the incident around 8.35am Thursday. On reaching the spot, they discovered the body of the student in his room at New Vindhyachal Apartments on the campus. A doctor at IIT-Delhi Hospital examined him and declared him brought dead.

Preliminary inquiry revealed the student, aged 19, resided in the apartment with his mother, who had gone to her native place in Rajasthan on March 10. She last spoke with him over the phone on March 11, around 11pm. The following morning, when he did not respond to her calls, another resident opened the room with the help of security staff and discovered the youth had taken the extreme step.

Crime and FSL teams inspected the scene. The student's father, whose statement was recorded by police, expressed no suspicion of foul play. The body was sent to Safdarjung Hospital for a post-mortem examination and later handed over to the family.

Following the incident, the security officer of IIT-Delhi, citing a Supreme Court judgment from March 24, 2025, submitted a written complaint requesting registration of an FIR and a detailed investigation. A case under Section 108 BNS (abetment of suicide) was registered against unknown persons.

In a statement, IIT-Delhi expressed "deep sorrow over the tragic and untimely demise" of the student and stated Delhi Police are investigating the incident. "In this hour of grief, the institute stands with the bereaved family and is providing them all support," it added. TNN

Entire thana staff transferred for 'colluding' with mafia

Pankul.Sharma

Dehradun: Uttarakhand HC on Friday came down heavily on the state govt and police for registering an FIR against a forest department official based on a complaint filed by an alleged mining mafia member. The court ordered suspension of the officer who registered the FIR and directed transfer of the entire staff of Vikas Nagar police station.

A single bench of Justice Rakesh Thaplilyal was hearing a petition filed by Rajeev Nayan Nautiyal, sub-divisional forest officer of Kalsi, and noted that an FIR was lodged against him at 12.15am on 26 Feb at Vikas Nagar police station following a complaint by Manish Chauhan, alleged to be linked with illegal mining operations.

Calling the circumstances "strange", the bench questioned the state's handling of the case and remarked, "What exactly is going? You are unable to even protect your own official."

The HC directed the DGP and the SSP to ensure the transfer of the entire police station staff and ordered a probe into possible collusion with the mining mafia.

"Who is colluding with the mining mafia?" the bench asked, emphasising that mining activities in the region must cease completely and directed the state counsel to obtain necessary instructions from govt in this regard.
