SC: Spectrum allocated to telcos not asset, can't be subjected to insolvency process

New Delhi: In a landmark decision, the Supreme Court on Friday held that the spectrum allocated to telecom service providers is not an asset to be subjected to proceedings under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code.

The decision will have ramifications in the telecommunication sector where telecom firms such as Aircel Group of Companies have invoked moratorium on the basis of voluntary corporate insolvency resolution process under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) for restructuring of their assets.

A bench of Justices P S Narasimha and A S Chandurkar ruled that the Union government is the owner and trustee of spectrum on the one hand, and the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) is the regulator on the other, and taken together, they occupy the "entire province of telecommunications".

It said while a licence and allocation of spectrum may, in abstract terms, constitute an intangible asset, it is always subject to the telecommunication laws of the nation like the Telegraph Act, 1885, Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1933, and the TRAI Act, 1997, followed by rules and regulations.

The bench said the regulatory jurisdiction for the telecommunication sector through TRAI extends to making recommendations to the Union government and discharging the functions under the TRAI Act

"We hold that spectrum allocated to telecom service providers (TSPs) and shown in their books of account as an 'asset' cannot be subjected to proceedings under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016," the top court ruled.

The bench said the regulatory jurisdiction for the telecommunication sector through TRAI extends to making recommendations to the Union government and discharging the functions under the TRAI Act.

"The statutory regime under the IBC cannot be permitted to make inroads into the telecom sector and re-write and restructure the rights and liabilities arising out of administration, usage, and transfers of spectrum which operate under the exclusive legal regime concerning telecommunications.

"The disharmony caused by applying IBC to the telecom sector, which operates under a different legal regime, was never intended by Parliament," the bench said.

It added that the statutory interpretation adopted by the corporate debtors like Aircel Group entities for applying IBC to the material resource of the nation, the spectrum, by referring to it as an "asset" in its books of account, the licence agreement, tripartite agreement (between DoT, banks and TSPs), or the spectrum trading guidelines of 2015, is like the "tail wagging the dog".

"Statutory interpretation cannot be based on a myopic approach of reading the definition clauses out of their context. Merely because spectrum can be treated as an 'asset' on the basis of certain attributes, such as possession and usage, lease and assignment, claim and liability or credit and debt, the entirety of the telecom sector cannot be brought under the sweep of IBC," the top court said, as it overruled the view taken by the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) holding that spectrum can be subjected to IBC process.

The top court said the scope and ambit of IBC is to speed up the process providing for insolvency, and achieving maximisation of the value of the asset of the entity undergoing corporate insolvency resolution process (CIRP) and the focus is on the company. It said on the other hand, the Telegraph Act, the Wireless Telegraphy Act and the TRAI Act form a complete and exhaustive code for all matters relating to the telecom sector. AGENCIES

SC cancels pre-arrest bail granted by HC to accused absconding for 6 yrs

New Delhi: In a significant verdict, the Supreme Court on Friday set aside a high court order granting anticipatory bail to a murder accused who remained a fugitive for more than six years. The top court directed the accused to surrender before the trial court within four weeks and said he will be free to seek regular bail there.

A bench of Justices J B Pardiwala and Vijay Bishnoi held that allowing an absconder to benefit from the acquittal of co-accused persons sets a "bad precedent" and incentivises the evasion of law.

"It is, thus, a trite position that an absconder is not entitled to the relief of anticipatory bail as a general rule. However, in certain exceptional cases, where on a perusal of the FIR, case diary and other relevant materials on record, the court is of the prima-facie opinion that no case is made out against the absconding accused, then the power of granting anticipatory bail may be exercised in favour of the absconding accused," Justice Bishnoi, who authored the judgment, said.

Referring to the facts of the case, the verdict termed the high court order "completely erroneous and perverse".

It said according to the documents on record, no exceptional case was made out for the grant of anticipatory bail to the accused. The bench noted that even the State had supported the appellant's submission that the high court order granting pre-arrest bail be set aside.

"However, it is not in dispute that the State has not filed any SLP (special leave petition) challenging the impugned order. We fail to understand why the respondent State, for reasons best known to it, has not filed an appeal before this court against the impugned order, when in fact, it has fully supported the appellant/original complainant's case for setting aside the anticipatory bail granted to the accused, by way of its counter-affidavit," the bench noted. It held that the high court had not rightly exercised the discretion to grant anticipatory bail as it was not a fit case in which the discretion could be exercised.

The bench said the accused was a member of a mob and had not only absconded from the investigation but also threatened to kill the injured victim, Shailendra alias Pintu, who was also an eyewitness.

"In light of the above discussion, we set aside the impugned order dated January 19, 2024, and direct the accused to surrender before the court concerned within a period of four weeks from today," it said.

"The accused cannot be permitted to encash on the acquittal of the co-accused persons.... Especially when the accused had been absconding for about six years and made a mockery of the judicial process," the apex court said.

The judgment warned that granting pre-arrest bail to fugitives sends a damaging message to law-abiding citizens.

It said such orders suggest that the co-accused, who diligently attended the trial, were "wrong" to do so and instead, the law "incentivises people to evade the process of law with impunity". PTI

Cops: CCTV shows car racing at over 100km/hr before hitting bike

According to police, the car was moving towards Kanpur from Lucknow when it first rammed into a parked motorcycle and then ploughed into pedestrians and vehicles in the market area.

The deceased child, Dikshant (6), a native of Unnao, had gone to the market with his grandmother. A student of Kendriya Vidyalaya in Lucknow, Dikshant succumbed to injuries during treatment. Eyewitnesses said that as soon as the car halted briefly after the crash, the girl accompanying the accused stepped out, while Gaurav sped away.

CCTV footage shows the Dzire car racing at over 100 kmph before hitting a motorcycle parked by the roadside. The impact caused the bike rider, Pramod Kumar of Sahijanpur, to fall and sustain severe head and facial injuries. He is undergoing treatment at Sarojininagar CHC.

The car then struck 12-year-old Armaan before hitting Sadhana Patel (35), her mother Meena Devi (60), and her 6-year-old son Dikshant, who was crushed under the vehicle.

The vehicle also ran over e-rickshaw driver Awadh Bihari (42), a resident of Pathraha village in Sohramau, Unnao, and rammed into a stationary auto-rickshaw before finally coming to a halt. By then, locals gathered, but the driver managed to flee.

Krishnanagar ACP Rajneesh Verma said the police traced the vehicle within hours using CCTV footage and arrested Gaurav Singh.

DCP South Nipun Agarwal confirmed that Gaurav's classmate was present in the car at the time of the accident and was detained for questioning after locals handed her over to police.

Police said Gaurav borrowed the car from a friend to attend the farewell party. His father is a businessman. A written complaint was filed by the deceased child's mother based on the car's registration number.

DCP Agarwal said that preliminary questioning with the man revealed that the tyre of the car burst suddenly, following which he lost control of the vehicle, but police will get a technical examination done and prepare a watertight case.

Gaurav's driving licence was cancelled for six months.

Eyewitness Ratan said, "The car came at a very high speed and hit 5 to 6 people directly, who were thrown in different directions."

Student killed, friend loses leg in accident

New Delhi: A night out to celebrate his birthday turned into tragedy for a 19-year-old when a speeding truck rammed into his scooter, killing him and leaving his friend so severely injured that he lost his leg.

Police received a call regarding the incident at around 12.30 am on Friday. The truck loaded with grocery items was headed towards Badarpur.

Manav, 19, a resident of Sarai Julena, was taken to a hospital but declared dead by doctors, police said. Mohammad Saad, 21, is undergoing treatment and is stated to be in critical condition. The scooter is registered in the name of his father, police said.

Both students of Jamia Millia Islamia.

After the incident, Saad was conscious enough to give the police his home contact. When he was taken into the hospital, he was unconscious and bleeding heavily."Saad remains in critical condition. Doctors have amputated one of his legs, and another surgery is ongoing," Uncle of the injured, Riyaz Uddin said.

He added that more than 60 units of blood have already been transfused, with 10 additional units urgently required. PTI

1. आप अपना पाठ्यक्रम पूर्ण कर चुके हैं, अब बस उसे एक व्यवस्थित ढंग से दोहराने की जरूरत है। इसलिए आप अपनी अध्ययन शैली और दिनचर्या के अनुरूप समय सारणी बना लें। ध्यान रखें आप की आदतें और आपके सहपाठी अलग–अलग व्यक्तित्व हैं। अतः दूसरों के नहीं बल्कि अपने अनुरूप योजना बनाकर पुनराभ्यास करें। माध्यमिक शिक्षा परिषद की आधिकारिक वेबसाइट upmsp.edu.in पर पाठ्यक्रम एवं मॉडल प्रश्न पत्र उपलब्ध है, उनसे भी सहायता ले सकते हैं।

2. पढ़ाई करते समय जिन बिंदुओं पर समस्या आए या कोई जिज्ञासा हो उन्हें विषयवार नोट कर लें, फिर अपने विद्यालय के संबंधित अध्यापक से समय लेकर उन शंकाओं का समाधान कर लें। आप अपनी इन विषयगत समस्याओं के लिए माध्यमिक शिक्षा परिषद द्वारा संचालित किए जा रहे दो टोल फ्री नंबरों 1800–180–5310 तथा 1800–180–5312 पर संपर्क कर सकते हैं।

4. अपनी दिनचर्या नियमित रखें और स्वास्थ्यप्रद भोजन लें। इस समय किसी भी प्रकार का अतिरेक आपके स्वास्थ्य को प्रभावित कर सकता है।

5. पढ़ाई के बीच ब्रेक लेना भी पढ़ाई करने जितना ही जरूरी है। इसलिए एक व्यावहारिक समय सारणी बनाएं और इसमें विश्राम का समय भी निर्धारित करें।

6. परीक्षा के तनाव को अपने ऊपर कदापि हावी न होने दें। कोई भी समस्या आने पर अपने माता–पिता एवं गुरुजनों से निसंकोच बात करें और उनसे मार्गदर्शन प्राप्त करें। यह बिल्कुल न सोचें कि यदि आपके अंक उनकी अपेक्षानुरूप नहीं आए तो आपके माता–पिता या गुरुजन आपके विषय में क्या सोचेंगे? विश्वास रखें कि आपके माता–पिता या गुरु आपसे सिर्फ इतनी अपेक्षा रखते हैं कि आप अपनी ओर से सर्वश्रेष्ठ प्रयास करें। उनके लिए आप सबसे महत्वपूर्ण है न कि आपके अंक। इसलिए परीक्षा परिणाम की चिंता किए बिना अपनी ओर से जो सर्वश्रेष्ठ प्रयास कर सकते हों वह करें। परीक्षा से संबंधित किसी भी प्रकार का मानसिक तनाव अनुभव होने पर आप टेलीमानस हेल्पलाइन सेवा की भी सहायता ले सकते हैं यह सेवा टोल फ्री नंबरों 14416, 800–891–4416 पर 24 घंटे उपलब्ध है।

बोर्ड परीक्षाओं के संबंध में सम्मानित अभिभावकों से भी यह अपेक्षित है कि वे इस संवेदनशील समय में अपने बच्चों को शारीरिक और भावनात्मक सहयोग प्रदान करें। बच्चों के साथ नियमित संवाद करें और उन्हें यह अनुभव होने दें कि आप हर परिस्थिति में उनके साथ हैं। अपने बच्चों की तुलना किसी भी अन्य बच्चे से न करें बल्कि उसे उसके प्रयासों के लिए प्रोत्साहित करते हुए तैयारी करने में सहयोग प्रदान करें। आपका सहयोग और समर्थन आपके बच्चों को कठिन परिस्थितियों में भी अपना आत्मविश्वास बनाए रखने में सहायता प्रदान करेगा।

परीक्षा में अब कुछ ही दिन शेष बचे हैं। विद्यार्थी सुनियोजित तैयारी एवं आत्मविश्वास के साथ परीक्षाओं में सम्मिलित हों। बोर्ड परीक्षा के सभी विद्यार्थियों को परीक्षा में अच्छे प्रदर्शन के लिए शुभकामनाएं।
