UKRAINE MISSILE HIT SEVERS CRIMEAN BRIDGE AS PUTIN READIES FOR SUMMIT

KYIV

A section of the bridge linking Russia to the annexed Crimean peninsula appeared to be lying in rubble in the water on Tuesday after Ukraine hit the road-and-rail link with missiles in a brazen overnight attack.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy hailed the strike as "unprecedented" and a justified retaliation for Russia's barrages of its infrastructure in the almost-five years since Moscow invaded. Traffic was completely halted, with local Russian-installed officials on the peninsula urging locals not to panic and saying the delivery of food and essentials would not be affected.

Moscow also launched attacks on key Ukrainian bridges, firing ballistic missiles at two major river crossings in Kyiv. The attacks come ahead of Thursday's meeting of Putin, Xi Jinping and Trump in Shenzhen, which Putin hopes will project a new "Yalta." Zelenskyy had warned of a Russian attack ahead of summit.

Crimean Bridge, a vital supply link to Crimea and a symbol of Russia's annexation

Damages to key bridge

Ukraine's SBU security service said one of the bridges metal arches "and the road span beneath it have been completely destroyed." "The central arch and spans have collapsed, and the rail section has suffered critical damage," Kyiv's defence ministry added.

Images published by the SBU showed piles of concrete rubble laying on base, bridge broken in two parts with a clean gap, several dozen meters wide, in the middle. The Kremlin vowed to restore bridge, while two people were killed in attack, Russian-installed governor said.

'French involved in war'

Russia accused France of "direct participation" in the Ukraine war after reports of French troops operating there. Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov said Moscow had raised its concerns with Paris. France rejected the claim as "absurd".

Russia used tear gas

A Ukraine-led investigation with the chemical weapons watchdog found Russian forces used a drone to drop CS tear gas on Ukrainian troops, a report said Tuesday. The watchdog confirmed in 2024 that the banned agent had been found at several sites. AFP

Iran strikes Bahrain again, slams dirty-bomb report

Tehran responds after Trump says he took bomb plot 'very seriously'

MANAMA

IRAN launched a fresh drone attack against Bahrain on Tuesday and dismissed a report alleging a dirty-bomb plot against the United States, which President Donald Trump said he took "very seriously".

Mediator Qatar urged "all parties" to show restraint following an uptick in hostilities, with Bahrain targeted three times in five days after a lull in Iranian attacks on Gulf countries since September.

Dirty bomb report

Trump was speaking after CNN cited seven anonymous US officials as saying Iran was plotting to target senior administration figures with a "dirty" bomb, laced with chemical or radioactive materials.

"If there is (such a threat), they will pay a price the likes of which no other country has ever paid before," Trump said after arriving for a summit in the Philippines. "I hope it's not, but we take it very seriously because they happen to be crazy."

WAR WATCH

Iran's foreign ministry spokesman Esmaeil Baqaei dismissed the report as "fabricated". "Those who initiated the aggression against Iran are now seeking to lay the media groundwork for their sinister designs by manufacturing and disseminating baseless allegations" including "the fabricated media narrative surrounding an alleged 'dirty bomb' propagated by CNN", he posted on X.

Baqaei criticised a New York Times report questioning whether Iranian dams, water projects had military uses. Earlier on Tuesday, explosions boomed across Bahrain's capital as a mobile-phone alert warned residents to seek safety. AFP

Israel parliament set to oust Bibi ally as speaker

JERUSALEM

ISRAEL's parliament is set on Tuesday to select a new speaker opposed to Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, a first step in rolling back the legacy of the country's divisive veteran leader even though he is still trying to stay in office.

Gadi Eisenkot, a former military chief who has until next month to form a government to replace Netanyahu, has put forward his ally Matan Kahana to be the next speaker. Netanyahu's Likud party is expected to try to draw out debate to scuttle Kahana's election in the parliament, known as the Knesset.

Likud in a statement demanded that lawmakers hold off on "severe, unilateral measures" and on "replacing the Knesset speaker at a time that negotiations are ongoing to form a national-unity government". AFP
