OIL PRICES

ing to keep oil markets volatile.

Forex traders said the rupee is likely to trade with a slight negative bias on global dollar strength and Brent crude prices hovering near USD 114 per barrel.

Renewed tensions between Yemeni Houthis and Saudi Arabia may continue to impact crude oil prices, they said, adding that the US dollar index recovered while 10-year US Treasury yields slipped below the 5 per cent mark.

At the interbank foreign exchange market, the rupee opened at 94.78 against the dollar, then lost ground to touch an intra-day low of 94.98 and finally settled for the day at 94.93 (provisional), registering a decline of 12 paise over its previous close.

On Thursday, the rupee slumped 43 paise to close at 94.81 against the US dollar.

"We expect the rupee to trade with a slight negative bias on elevated crude oil prices amid escalation of tensions in the Middle East and weakness in domestic markets."

Selling FIIs may also pressurise the rupee. However, softening of US treasury yields and any fresh intervention by the RBI may support the rupee at lower levels," said Anuj Choudhary, Research Analyst, Mirae Asset Sharekhan.

The stakes are very high for the Patna graduates' seat, where Mokama JD(U) MLA Anant singh is backing Jan Suraaj Party candidate Anuj Singh against his own party MLC Neeraj Kumar despite attempts to bring truce between the two. This has also brought to fore the factionalism within the party. Anant Singh didn't budge even after mediation effort of party's senior leader and Union minister Rajiv Ranjan Singh alias Lalan Singh.

Supporters of the MLA clashed with those of Neeraj Kumar in Mokama, prompting police to detain several people. The Mokama MLA's close aide Chhotu Singh was detained by police in the state capital for "allegedly disrupting peace and order".

From Patna teachers' seat, RJD candidate Sanjeev Kumar alleged that the police had reached his house past midnight to create undue pressure on him. His wife also came out during polling, alleging attempts to browbeat his husband's supporters.

Sporadic clashes were also reported from Muzaffarpur. There was also a case of model code violation lodged against sitting MLC Afaq Ahmad who is again contesting on Jan Suraaj ticket from Saran teachers' seat.

For the National Democratic Alliance (NDA), the elections are crucial as it would be an opportunity to redeem the prestige after losing the BJP bastion of Bankipore in the assembly bypoll necessitated by the elevation of party's national president Nitin Nabin to the Rajya Sabha.

Both the BJP and JD(U(are contesting four seats each from the NDA.

The alliance hopes to cash in on the fissures in the opposition camp, with the RJD, Congress and Left candidates being face to face on several seats, and division of votes due to the presence of Jan Suraaj candidates on all seats and also some rebels being in the contest.

The terms of the eight members of the graduates' and teachers' constituencies are due to expire on November 16.

The graduates' seats going to polls are Patna, Darbhanga, Tirhut and Kosi, while teachers' constituencies are Patna, Tirhut, Darbhanga and Saran. Of the eight seats. independents at present hold three seats, BJP two, while one seat each is with the JD(U), Congress and the CPI.

Meanwhile, RJD's working president and leader of opposition in Bihar assembly, Tejashwi Yadav, accused the ruling coalition of "misusing the administration" to enable "vote theft".

'People will get job only when U.P. CM gets unemployed'

LUCKNOW: Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav on Friday took a swipe at the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) government in Uttar Pradesh over unemployment, saying people would get jobs only when Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath was removed from power.

"People will only get jobs when you render the Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh unemployed. Until you make him unemployed, give up any hope of getting jobs from the BJP," Yadav said while responding to questions about the Opposition's prospects in the 2027 Uttar Pradesh Assembly elections.

Rejecting the NDA's assertion that the Samajwadi Party's prospects of winning the 2027 elections would remain a dream, Yadav said his party believed in struggle and practical action.

"We, the Samajwadis, don't deal in dreams. We move forward grounded in reality and through struggle," he said.

The SP chief alleged that the BJP was using the administration and resorting to malpractice at polling booths out of fear of defeat in the Legislative Council graduate and teacher constituency elections.

"Fearing defeat, they were using the administration and resorting to malpractice at the polling booths. But we still managed to prevent malpractice," he said.

Yadav expressed hope that unemployed young people would be able to secure jobs and build their futures after the next Assembly elections, accusing the BJP of obstructing their aspirations.

"We are hopeful that when the general elections arrive, these very young people—who are currently unemployed and have dreams to fulfil—will be able to secure jobs and build their futures. If anyone is standing in the way of them building their future, it is the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP). If any crisis is being created, it is by the Bharatiya Janata Party," he said.

Targeting the state government over inflation and fuel prices, Yadav also criticised the blending of ethanol with petrol.
