Russia strikes Zelenskyy's town, casts doubt on peace

2 dead, 60 wounded; strike follows Trump-Xi-Putin peace declaration

KYIV

A Russian strike on the center of Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy's hometown, Kryvyi Rih, killed two people and wounded 60 others, local officials said on Saturday.

A 7-year-old boy and a 20-year-old woman were killed in the attack on Friday night on Kryvyi Rih in central Ukraine, Oleksandr Vilkul, the head of the city administration, wrote on Telegram. Oleksandr Hanzha, head of the regional military administration, said 60 people were wounded, including six children. The strike caused four fires and damaged about 25 apartment buildings, a hospital, schools and an industrial facility, as well as vehicles, Vilkul said.

"First, two ballistic missiles. And then, when the emergency and rescue operation began, three more rockets hit doctors, rescuers, and utility workers," Vilkul wrote on Telegram.

The strike came two days after Trump, Putin and Xi Jinping held a trilateral meeting in China and agreed on a peace declaration. While the declaration did not mention Ukraine, Putin said. The attack on Zelenskyy's hometown added to uncertainty about the prospects for ongoing talks brokered by Washington. It also came hours after two Russian missiles and a suspected drone came down in Poland, in what its prime minister said was likely a provocation timed to coincide with European military exercises in his country for a possible postwar mission in Ukraine.

European troops joined a two-week military exercise in southeastern Poland to prepare for a possible postwar mission in Ukraine to help stabilise the country and rebuild its military.

Zelenskyy backs Kerch strikes

Zelenskyy said Ukraine's attacks on the Kerch Bridge were a "fair response" to 109 Russian strikes on Ukrainian bridges. He accused Putin of seeking escalation and rejected his claim that the bridge carries only civilian traffic. UK Defense Secretary Wes Streeting called Russian airspace violations in Poland "an outrageous provocation." AP

Finland reports drone attack on Russian cargo ship in Baltic

HELSINKI: Finland said its military detected a drone attack on a Russian cargo ship in the eastern Baltic Sea on Saturday, setting the vessel on fire. The ship began drifting towards Finnish waters but posed no danger to other vessels. Finland notified NATO and imposed temporary airspace and maritime restrictions. Prime Minister Petteri Orpo said the incident showed the war was "spilling over" into Finland's vicinity, adding that Ukraine had the right to fight back. The attacker was not identified.

Denmark expels Russian diplomat over rapper plot

COPENHAGEN: Denmark will expel Russia's defence attacha after intelligence agency accused Moscow of plotting to assassinate Ukrainian rapper Kyivstoner at a Copenhagen concert. Three suspects were intercepted with firearms and knives, while two faced investigation for attempted murder and aiding foreign intelligence service. Denmark is considering suspending Schengen visas for Russians. Moscow rejected the allegations, calling expulsion vengeful.

Iran flexes missile power in Hormuz

DUBAI

IRANIAN state television aired footage from an underground missile facility where the paramilitary Revolutionary Guard unveiled a new launcher it said was capable of firing two liquid-fueled missiles.

The launchers appear to be an advance over a dual launcher that Iran previously used that fired two solid-fuel missiles at a time. Liquid fuel is more efficient and gives operators some capability to adjust the missiles' speed and trajectory.

WAR WATCH

The location of the missile site was not revealed, but the broadcast aimed to tout Iran's missile capabilities and counter past US claims to have destroyed the missile programme, amid fears that the war with the United States could heat up once again.

During the unveiling of the launchers, Brig Gen Seyyed Majid Mousavi, commander of the Guard's Aerospace Force, boasted that Iran's "capabilities have expanded."

At least three oil tankers were attacked in or near the Strait of Hormuz on Saturday. UK maritime security officials said two were hit by projectiles while leaving the Gulf, with no casualties reported. AP

Frustration to wrap up UN climate talks that is way past deadline

ANTALYA

A fight over fossil fuels threatened to derail UN climate talks on Saturday as nations pushed back against a proposed agreement that scrapped any mention of planet-heating coal, oil and gas. Negotiations dragged into extra time after the summit in Turkey sailed past Friday's scheduled closing time, with talks through the night failing to break the impasse.

COP31 co-hosts Australia and Turkey are scrambling to produce a revised draft deal as time runs out and delegates prepare to leave after two weeks of exhaustive negotiations.

Talks on 'red line'

"Getting bogged down in individual words and expressions and undermining this process serves no one's interests," said COP31 President and Turkish Environment Minister Murat Kurum, who urged countries to "act responsibly" and compromise. Expectations of a major breakthrough in the Turkish city of Antalya have been low as countries grapple with an oil price shock and geopolitical tensions stemming from the war in Iran. The summit follows a string of climate-linked disasters from Europe to Nepal and Indonesia. AFP

Cyberattack: US agri dept payment, FBI database hit

WASHINGTON

THE US Agriculture Department and the FBI were breached by hackers in cyberattacks, US media reported, as concerns deepened over the recent spate of tech outages at key American institutions.

The incidents were first reported by NBC News and CNN respectively, and it remained unclear whether they were related and who was responsible. Major outages in recent weeks have disrupted travel, communications and e-commerce for countless users across the US, even affecting a top-secret network at National Security Agency.

Donald Trump has sought to calm the public and urged people to "relax", while officials said the various outages were not linked to criminal activity. AFP
