BALEN VISIT

rail and border connectivity projects linking Nepal to Bihar, Uttar Pradesh and other Indian states. "We will provide access to Kandla and Paradip ports to facilitate Nepal's transit trade," he said, adding these efforts will give a push to Nepal's economic development.

In the civil aviation sector, India acceded to Nepal's long-standing demand by agreeing to make the unidirectional Kathmandu-Bhairahawa-Lucknow route bidirectional. Technical consultations will be held to finalise modalities for this and to address other civil aviation proposals from both sides currently being discussed, a joint press release said.

Modi pointed to the complementarity between the immense potential for clean energy from Nepal's rivers and India's vast energy market, and said the laying of the foundation stone for the 669-MW Lower Arun hydroelectric project and New Delhi's commitment to the timely completion of the Arun-3 power project are part of this vision.

He noted that India has been a reliable supplier of petroleum products and other essential commodities to Nepal, and maintained supplies of fuel and fertilisers despite serious oil supply challenges this year.

"Today's inauguration of Phase II of the Motihari-Amlekhganj pipeline and the foundation stone laying of the Jhapa petroleum terminal will further strengthen this partnership," he said, referring to the plan to build a greenfield oil storage terminal in Nepal with a capacity of 18.9 million litres.

As a nod to Shah's focus on the aspirations of Nepal's youth, Modi said India will partner with them in realising their dreams. "We will establish a start-up incubator, an innovation hub and an offshore campus of the Indian Institute of Technology in Nepal. We will expand scholarship opportunities in law and technology for Nepali students in India," he said.

Both PMs emphasised the importance of the joint vision document with the theme of "developed India and prosperous Nepal" in giving shape to a shared future.

Modi described it as a blueprint and said: "We have clear goals, mutual trust and the ability to achieve them...I am confident that with this spirit, we will transform our shared vision into concrete achievements. And together, we will write a new golden chapter in India-Nepal relations."

Shah said the joint vision will advance work towards a shared and prosperous future, and noted that "mutual respect, steadfast trust and unbroken goodwill" form the bedrock of bilateral ties. He acknowledged that India, as a dependable and trusted neighbour, has "consistently stood as a first responder in times of natural disasters and difficult hours".

Shah said his candid and forward-looking talks with Modi were guided by the goal of "strengthening and modernising" the historical relationship. "The need of the hour is to stand on the sturdy foundation of this enduring bond and build strong pillars for the future," he said, speaking in Nepali.

As the two sides transform bilateral ties through mutual trust, cooperation and shared prosperity into a "transformative development partnership that opens up opportunity for our younger generations", India and Nepal must address the challenges of climate change through collective action, Shah said. He also invited Indian investors to partner with Nepal and sought expanded direct air connectivity.

While the joint press release made no mention of boundary disputes, including Nepal's claim on Limpiyadhura, Lipulekh and Kalapani, it said that the leaders expressed satisfaction at progress in joint field work to maintain and repair boundary pillars, and "directed the Foreign Secretaries to work on the outstanding boundary issues".

The two sides also concluded eight memorandums of understanding.

MAOIST

Muzaffarpur and West Champaran districts related to murder and Arms Act cases. Her present arrest relates to a case registered with Paru police station in Muzaffarpur in January 2026 under sections of the Arms Act, Explosives Act and UAPA," said DG (Operation) Kundan Krishnan.

The state police said that Sweta was nabbed with the assistance of modern technology surveillance, intelligence systems and joint raids. The police also expect that her arrest might provide clues about the operational apparatus of Maoists as she must have been deeply connected within the network.

She had taken shelter in the Barauni area where she was trying to revive old connections and find new recruits, said a police officer. He added that the police were trying to unearth where she was hiding in the area and who helped her during her stay.

The STF and Begusarai police said they were scouring documents related to Sweta, tracing old files related to her and all possible locations where she visited or operated from.

"All angles are being probed," said a senior police officer, adding that the police had begun probing the arrested Maoist.

SEAT SHARING TALKS

included its Rajya Sabha floor leader Ramgopal Yadav, MPs Rajiv Rai and Iqra Hasan and state unit president Shyamlal Pal.

The Congress negotiating team comprised of UP in-charge Rajendra Pal Gautam, Mishra, MP Imran Masood and its legislative leader Virendra Chaudhary. Gautam had told HT last week that party general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra will lead the Congress' group but later Chaudhary was included. According to the Congress, Priyanka would be involved in the final stages of the negotiations.

In the 2022 UP assembly election, the Congress secured only 2 seats, down from the 7 seats it won in 2017. Two years later, in the last Lok Sabha polls, the Congress won 6 seats as a result of its alliance with the SP. According to a senior Congress leader, the party is demanding seats on the basis of its Lok Sabha performance, traditional strongholds and regional factors.

At the HT leadership summit, former UP CM and SP chief Akhilesh Yadav had indicated his willingness to continue the alliance with the Congress. He also revealed that the Congress had initially demanded 181 seats. "Our relations are very good. There is no change in the INDIA alliance," Yadav said.

Both sides maintained that the meeting was cordial. Samajwadi Party's Rajya Sabha floor leader Ram Gopal Yadav said, "The meeting was held in a very cordial atmosphere. We listened to each other's views and will soon finalise the alliance. We expect to complete the alliance within the next 2-3 days. The second round of talks will be held tomorrow."

On seat-sharing discussions between the Congress and the Samajwadi Party for upcoming UP elections, Uttar Pradesh Dy CM Brajesh Pathak said, "...No alliance, whether it be the one involving Owaisi or the coalition between the Congress and the Samajwadi Party, will succeed; they will prove to be complete failures. The BJP will return to power for a third time with an overwhelming majority..."

Raking up the past records of the SP government, Pathak said, "The Samajwadi Party should answer: when will they apologise for ordering gunfire on the devotees of Lord Ram? When will they apologise for the 'one district, one mafia' culture they fostered in Uttar Pradesh? When will they apologise for the nature of the corruption that took place?"

IDS FOR MONKS

retary-general of the International Buddhist Council, Bodh Gaya, and the monks in charge of all monasteries in the area.

Besides IDs, the secretary said monasteries will submit a list of all monks to the BTMC office.

Mahabodhi Temple, a Unesco World Heritage Site, has lately witnessed several unsavoury incidents of violence, unrest and vandalism perpetrated largely by outsiders who came here in the garb of being monks, raising concerns about the place's security.

The Mahabodhi Temple and the Bodhi Tree located within its premises constitute the most significant pilgrimage site for followers of Buddhism, attracting over 3 million devotees annually, according to official records.

Bhikkhu Pragyadeep, general secretary of the International Buddhist Council, Bodh Gaya, welcomed the initiative and termed it necessary for the safety of the shrine, monks and general devotees. But he expressed concern that the state government has not constituted the new BTMC committee despite the old committee's term expiring in July.
