US-Iran to hold next round of indirect negotiations after Khamenei funeral

Diplomacy holds after talks; Iran tells tankers to use approved routes

DOHA

THE next indirect US-Iran talks will come after the late Iranian supreme leader's funeral, mediators said Thursday, as diplomacy inches ahead on ending the West Asia war.

Following the foes' indirect discussions in Doha on Wednesday, US President Donald Trump as well as mediators Qatar and Pakistan offered signs that diplomacy was holding, despite exchanges of fire this week. An interim deal was agreed to reopen the vital Strait of Hormuz and end hostilities, but major questions still need to be tackled in talks, including Iran's nuclear programme.

"Qatari and Pakistani mediators concluded separate meetings with the US and Iranian negotiators in Doha, with positive progress made," Pakistan said on Thursday.

Islamabad added the sides agreed to keep talking, "with the next meeting to be set at the earliest possible time following the funeral processions of the former Iranian Supreme Leader."

WAR WATCH

Shipping route warning

Iran's joint military command warned on Thursday that all oil tankers moving through the Strait of Hormuz must use its approved routes or face a "forceful response," ratcheting up tensions again over a waterway crucial for international energy supplies.

The statement from the Khatam al-Anbiya military command, reported by Iranian state television, comes after both US and Iranian diplomats met with mediators Wednesday in Qatar. It wasn't immediately clear what sparked the threat from Iran. However, the US military's Central Command had put out a statement about a meeting with officials from West Asia nations in Bahrain that said "leaders underscored their shared commitment to the free flow of commerce through" the strait. AFP/AP

Iran says funeral turnout must avenge Khamenei

TEHRAN: Iran's parliament speaker Mohammad Bagher Ghalibaf urged a massive public turnout for Ali Khamenei's funeral, saying it should send a message of vengeance to the world. Authorities expect 15-20 million mourners at at ceremonies beginning on Saturday.

Iran to use frozen Qatar funds for imports

TEHRAN: Iran will use part of its frozen assets in Qatar to buy essential goods, Deputy Foreign Minister Kazem Gharibabadi said after Doha talks. Officials reviewed spending from an initial $6 billion, though details on releasing the funds under the US-Iran agreement remain unclear.

UNESCO warns Pakistan over Taxila reconstruction

ISLAMABAD

THE UN has asked Pakistan to reverse the "reconstructions" that "undermined the integrity" of two historical sites in Taxila, a UNESCO World Heritage site, or these would be placed on the agency's "danger list", a media report said on Thursday.

UNESCO, the cultural arm of the UN, in a recent meeting told senior government officials that it would not hesitate to "delist" the historical sites at Mohra Moradu and Sirkap, just like it had "delisted" a World Heritage Site in Germany, due to the recent "unnecessary interventions", the Dawn newspaper reported, quoting sources. The UN agency warned that it would "delist" Taxila from its World Heritage List if the actions were not reversed.

Taxila, located in the Rawalpindi district of Pakistan's Punjab province, is a vast serial site that includes a Mesolithic cave and the archaeological remains of four early settlement sites, Buddhist monasteries, and a mosque and madrassa. The ruins of the four settlement sites at Taxila reveal the pattern of urban evolution on the Indian subcontinent through more than five centuries, according to the UNESCO website.

In March, a visitor shared information and pictures with Pakistan's Permanent Delegate to UNESCO in Paris, highlighting reconstruction works by the Punjab archaeology department. The visitor observed interventions that could "affect the authenticity and integrity of the property, specifically original walls being replaced with new construction or their height being raised", the report said. UNESCO warned the interventions could compromise the sites' authenticity and place them on the "danger list". PTI

After 1,000 days, Gaza's future remains uncertain

GAZA CITY

IT'S the 1,000th day since a Hamas-led attack on Israel sparked the war in Gaza. Other conflicts have emerged in the region, and fragile ceasefires show scars of persistent attacks. Both Israelis and Palestinians are weary of the strain.

The fate of over 2 million Palestinians in Gaza, largely displaced and living amid ruins, remains uncertain. Israeli forces controlled over half of the territory under the ceasefire that took effect on October 10, but Israel's government has expanded that and says it aims to hold 70%. The October 7, 2023, Hamas-led attack on southern Israel killed about 1,200 people and took 251 hostage.

All hostages or their remains have been released or handed over. Many recounted long-term starvation, physical and psychological abuse and, in some cases, sexual abuse.

Israel's retaliation has killed a total of 73,066 Palestinians as of Tuesday, Gaza's Health Ministry says. Despite the ceasefire, few people can get in or out of Gaza. Further ceasefire steps, including Hamas' disarmament and the immense task of reconstruction, have stalled. "Much more needs to be done so that even a semblance of normality can come back, and we are far, far away from this," the International Committee of the Red Cross regional director, Nicolas von Arx, said this week.

Israeli strikes have lessened considerably since the ceasefire took effect, but they continue almost daily.

Gaza's Health Ministry counted 1,053 Palestinians dead since the ceasefire as of Tuesday, including over 350 women and children. In recent days, they included a teenage girl on her way to school and a mother with her 1-year-old daughter. AP

Aoun defends Israel talks, vows to protect territory

BEIRUT: Lebanese President Joseph Aoun defended negotiations with Israel, saying diplomacy was aimed at securing Israel's withdrawal, not betraying Lebanon. Vowing not to cede "a single inch" of territory, he spoke after Israel said its troops would remain in security zones until further notice despite last week's US-backed framework agreement. The deal envisions Hezbollah disarming and Israeli forces withdrawing, with no timeline set.

Russia bombards Kyiv, killing 21 in retaliatory strikes

KYIV

RUSSIA hammered Kyiv in an 11-hour drone and missile attack overnight into Thursday morning, killing at least 21 civilians in the city and injuring scores more in what Moscow said was retaliation for Ukrainian strikes on Russian oil facilities.

Loud explosions shook the Ukrainian capital, where more than 50,000 people sheltered in subway stations after authorities issued air raid warnings, the Kyiv Metro said. Emergency crews dug through the rubble of collapsed and charred apartment buildings all day in search of victims. Russia's Defense Ministry said in a statement that the bombardment was in response to Ukraine's recent barrage of long-range strikes, which have caused severe fuel shortages and put pressure on President Vladimir Putin.

Ukraine's frequent attacks inside Russia — described by Zelenskyy as a 40-day blitz — have especially targeted oil refineries, causing a fuel crisis that has frustrated Russians already feeling the war's economic toll.

More than four years after Moscow's full-scale invasion of its neighbor, Ukraine's technological advances in drone engineering have in recent months given it an edge, analysts and Western officials say. Its strikes on supply routes behind the front line have robbed the Russian army of momentum on the battlefield and made its progress slow and costly, they say. AP

Ukraine officer charged over Nord Stream

BERLIN: German prosecutors charged a Ukrainian army officer over the 2022 sabotage of the Nord Stream gas pipelines, alleging he acted on orders from Ukrainian state authorities. The suspect, extradited from Italy last year, is accused of leading a team that used a chartered yacht to transport military-grade explosives to the Baltic Sea, where timed charges were attached to the pipelines. The blasts destroyed three pipelines and could strain Germany-Ukraine ties.
