'Temple relocation done with consent of devotees'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Tirupati

TIRUPATI District Collector S Venkateswar on Wednesday clarified that officials relocated the Abhaya Anjaneya Swamy temple at Anjaneyapuram in accordance with the sentiments, traditions and wishes of devotees and villagers to facilitate the expansion of National Highway-716 between Kadapa and Renigunta.

Urging people not to believe misinformation about the issue, he said officials had made all arrangements in consultation with the temple's chief priest, Endowments Department officials and villagers.

Addressing the media at the Collectorate along with Anjaneyapuram villagers, temple priest Dilip, Executive Officer Munishekhar and other officials, the Collector said local resident Sukhadevayya had built the temple around 60 years ago. The temple was affected by the highway alignment approved by the Union Ministry of Road Transport and Highways in December 2019.

Following consultations with villagers, officials deposited ₹59.30 lakh in compensation with the Endowments Department in August 2026 for the acquisition of around 10 cents of temple land.

As an alternative, they allotted 50 cents for constructing a new temple. He said officials had also arranged a temporary structure to ensure daily rituals continued without interruption.

TGSPDCL engineer accuses two ACB officials of demanding ₹30 lakh

CHITHALURI REVANTH @ Hyderabad

THE Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB), which investigates corruption allegations against government employees, is facing allegations of corruption against two of its own officials, with an Assistant Divisional Engineer (ADE) of TGSPDCL accusing them of demanding ₹30 lakh to secure relief in a disproportionate assets (DA) case registered against him.

While the ACB has ordered an internal inquiry against the Inspector, who was the investigating officer in the case, no such inquiry has been initiated against the DSP, who was also named in the complaint. The agency has not explained why the DSP was left out of the inquiry.

"We have ordered an internal inquiry nearly three months ago against the Inspector," a senior ACB official told TNIE on Wednesday. However, when asked why the DSP had not been included in the inquiry, the official declined to comment.

According to a complaint lodged by E Ambedkar, a former ADE of the Telangana Southern Power Distribution Company Limited (TGSPDCL), the Inspector allegedly demanded 15 lakh to remove the name of Rajesh, stated to be his benami, from the DA case and another 15 lakh to secure its closure.

Ambedkar alleged that he had paid ₹5 lakh to the officials in May 2026. He further claimed that the demands had been discussed repeatedly in conversations recorded through audio and video recordings.

In his complaint to the Director General of ACB in June 2026, Ambedkar brought the alleged demands to the agency's notice. His statement was subsequently recorded by the Joint Director, ACB, Central Zone.

The DA case against Ambedkar was registered on September 15, 2025, when he was posted at Ibrahimbagh in Narsingi. He was arrested in connection with the case.

Tirumala museum emerges as major pilgrim attraction

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Tirumala

THE renovated Sri Venkateswara (SV) Museum in Tirumala has emerged as a major attraction for pilgrims, combining thousands of rare artefacts with immersive digital experiences across 14 themed galleries.

Chief Minister Nara Chandrababu Naidu inaugurated the revamped museum during the annual Brahmotsavams on September 16, 2026.

The facility was opened to the public on November 16. Originally established in 1980 as the Hall of Antiques (Dhyana Gnana Mandiram), underwent a ₹145-crore modernisation project funded through Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) contributions.

Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) contributed ₹125 crore, while MAP Systems provided ₹20 crore. The museum houses more than 8,000 artefacts and chronicles the history, geology, art and spiritual traditions associated with the Seven Hills.

Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) Additional Executive Officer Ch Venkaiah Chowdary supervised the project along with TTD engineers.

Among the key attractions is the Brahmandam gallery, which uses 7D visual effects, holography and 360-degree audio to depict cosmic creation and Lord Vishnu's Viswaroopam. The museum also showcases rare donations made by the Pallava, Chola, Pandya and Vijayanagara dynasties.

Judges doubt Bibi bribery case would stand judicial scrutiny

Netanyahu faces bribery, fraud and breach-of-trust charges in three cases

JERUSALEM

JUDGES in the long-running corruption trial of Israeli caretaker Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu on Wednesday recommended the prosecution drop bribery charges against him, Israeli media report, just as he fights for his political survival.

During a hearing, judges indicated there was little chance for a conviction on bribery charges in a case where Netanyahu is accused of granting government favours in exchange for favourable media coverage.

In another case, in which Netanyahu is indicted for fraud and breach of trust over allegedly negotiating favourable media coverage, judges questioned whether Netanyahu's actions amounted to criminal conduct.

In a third case, also for fraud and breach of trust, in which Netanyahu and his family allegedly received luxury gifts, judges recommended finding an agreement.

Benjamin Netanyahu

Israel's Attorney General Gali Baharav-Miara, who was summoned to the hearing, said she would consider the judges' recommendations and was ready for either a verdict or a negotiated agreement.

Bibi calls for end to trial

Meanwhile, Netanyahu called for an immediate end to his corruption trial, saying he and his family had suffered for 10 years and endured "incitement to hatred that wounds the soul".

He asked who would give those years back to them and said the trial must end immediately, arguing that the "fabricated cases" against him were falling apart and should now be dismissed altogether.

Parliament pushes Oct 7 probe

Israel's parliament on Wednesday took a first step towards a state inquiry into security failures behind Hamas's October 7, 2023 attack, long opposed by Netanyahu. Centrist Gadi Eisenkot had pledged to swiftly establish an independent commission to investigate the failures that allowed the attack, which killed more than 1,200 people.

Netanyahu, who was prime minister during the attack, had rejected calls for a probe with broad investigative powers, instead proposing one whose members would be appointed by politicians. In a preliminary vote, 65 lawmakers backed the commission bill, while 50 opposed it. The bill will go to a Knesset committee and must pass three further readings. The five-member commission would publish an interim report. AFP

Israeli strike kills Gaza security chief, family

GAZA CITY: An Israeli strike killed Gaza's internal security chief Mohammed Abu al-Ouf, his wife and two daughters, aged 13 and 15, officials said. Twelve were hurt. Israel said it targeted a Hamas militant. Three others were killed in separate strikes, bringing death toll to seven.
