Husband cannot be held responsible for wife's business debts, rules AP HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

THE Andhra Pradesh High Court has ruled that a husband cannot be held legally responsible for the financial liabilities and contractual obligations of a sole proprietorship business owned by his wife merely because of their marital relationship. Justice Nune Palli Harinath delivered the verdict on Monday while dismissing two petitions filed by Krishna District Milk Producers Mutually Aided Cooperative Union (Vijaya Dairy) and its directors Dasari Venkata Balavardhana Rao and Vemuri Sai Venkata Ramana, challenging orders of the Andhra Pradesh Cooperative Tribunal in an election dispute.

The court upheld the tribunal's decision to set aside the August 12, 2023 election to two director posts and order fresh elections. The dispute arose after the nomination of Veerapaneni Sivarama Prasad, president of Penamakuru Milk Producers Cooperative Society, was rejected on the ground that his wife Padmaja's sole proprietorship, Ratnalamma Dairy, allegedly owed money to the cooperative union.

His nomination was rejected in August 2022, citing outstanding dues of ₹4.26 lakh. When he filed another nomination in August 2023, the alleged dues were stated to have increased to ₹5.30 crore.

Challenging the decisions, Sivarama Prasad approached the Cooperative Tribunal. While the tribunal initially upheld the rejection, it subsequently set aside the 2023 election and ordered fresh elections. The HC observed that Sivarama was neither a partner in his wife's business nor a party to the agreement with the cooperative union.

The judge further noted that the union's managing director admitted that its audit reports from 2015-16 to 2023 did not reflect the alleged ₹4.26 crore dues and that there were no business transactions with the dairy after 2021.

Rejecting objections over the tribunal delivering its order after working hours on the member's retirement day, the court said statutory authority continued until midnight.

Vaikuntam waiting halls all set for modernisation

Officials seek feedback to improve amenities for pilgrims in future

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Tirumala

THE Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) is set to upgrade all waiting compartments of the Vaikuntam Queue Complex on par with the experimental Pilgrim Experience Centre inaugurated at the Vaikuntam Queue Complex-I on September 16, 2026 by CM N Chandrababu Naidu.

Designed to turn waiting hours into an enriching spiritual journey, the pilot facility features a 13-minute immersive virtual reality experience titled 'Durlabh Darshan' offering a close-up engagement with the temple's sacred rituals, high-definition 3D videos depicting the daily kainkaryams, sevas and puja rituals of Lord Venkateswara along with visual narratives on the mythological and historical significance of the hill shrine, and dedicated meditation zones for pilgrims to meditate in a serene environment before entering the sanctum sanctorum.

Encouraged by its initial success, TTD officials are gathering feedback from pilgrims and have appealed to devotees to share their needs, opinions and suggestions through its feedback channels so that future upgrades can be tailored to pilgrim expectations.

If implemented across the complex, waiting will no longer be a test of patience but a "next-level" devotional experience.

Rahul allowed Bharat Summit to be used to run down India: BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Hyderabad

THE Telangana unit of the BJP has demanded an immediate and comprehensive investigation into alleged violations of Indian immigration laws and visa regulations by foreign representatives at the Bharat Summit, accusing the Congress leadership of facilitating and encouraging anti-India remarks at the event.

A BJP delegation led by State party president N Ramchander Rao on Monday lodged an official complaint with the Foreigners Regional Registration Office (FRRO), seeking action against Italian politician Giacomo Filibeck and the organisers of the Bharat Summit for allegedly making anti-India remarks from the summit platform two days ago.

The delegation also submitted a petition seeking an investigation into whether the foreign representative's remarks violated Indian immigration laws and visa regulations.

The BJP delegation subsequently met DGP CV Anand and lodged another complaint seeking legal action against the summit organisers and foreign delegates. The party demanded that criminal cases be registered against the organisers, alleging that they facilitated the remarks.
