Iran seeks compensation as oil spill reaches Qeshm

Baqaei says spills caused trillions in damage to Iran's coastal areas

PARIS

IRAN on Thursday said an oil spill had reached Qeshm island, with the slick degrading waters of the Gulf and Sea of Oman. Foreign ministry spokesman Esmaeil Baqaei said "preliminary evidence indicates a foreign bulk carrier as the source". TankerTrackers, a website that monitors shipping movements, said the spill seemed to derive from an Iranian attack. "The spillage then drifted across the strait over to Iran," it said. Baqaei said such spills had imposed "trillions of dollars" in damage on Iran's coastal areas, calling for compensation from those responsible. The spill had reached Qeshm island but was "almost completely cleaned up by Wednesday evening", said Habib Masihi, head of the environmental protection department in Iran's southern Hormozgan province.

US ENVOY TO ISRAEL CALLS SIEGE 'HORRIFIC ACT OF TERROR'

QUSRA: Israeli settlers have besieged three homes in the occupied West Bank for several days, including one owned by a Palestinian American, in what the US ambassador called a "horrific act of terror" on Thursday. Mike Huckabee's remarks on X represented an unusually sharp rebuke from the Trump administration of the latest episode in a surge of settler violence in the region. AP

Putin makes first trip to disputed Kuril Islands, draws strong protest in Tokyo

MOSCOW

RUSSIAN President Vladimir Putin on Thursday made his first visit to the Kuril Islands, a Moscow-controlled Pacific archipelago that also is claimed by Japan, which voiced a diplomatic protest over the trip.

Putin visited a fish plant, a hospital and a school on Iturup, one of the volcanic chain's southern islands. He also briefly spoke to local residents and met with the governor of Russia's Sakhalin region, Valery Limarenko. Japan asserts territorial rights to the four southernmost islands of the chain, which it calls the Northern Territories. The Soviet Union took them from Japan in the final days of World War II, and the dispute kept the countries from signing a peace treaty formally ending their hostilities. Decades of diplomatic efforts to negotiate a settlement haven't produced any visible results. Moscow over the years has also bolstered its military presence on the Kurils in moves that appeared to underscore its firm stance in the dispute. Japanese Foreign Minister Toshimitsu Motegi said his country "strongly protests" Putin's visit to Iturup."The Northern Territories, including Etorofu (Iturup) Island, are Japan's inherent territory both historically and from the perspective of international law," Motegi said.

Ukrainian drones strike major Russian refinery

KYIV: Ukrainian drones struck the Gazprom Neftekhim Salavat refinery in Russia's Bashkortostan, causing a fire and wounding two people, officials said. Kyiv said the facility, about 1,300 km from Ukraine, is one of Russia's largest, processing up to 74 million barrels annually. The attack was the fourth on Russian refineries in three days, as Kyiv targets Moscow's vital oil sector and seeks to disrupt fuel supplies.
