Cyberfraudsters loot ₹22 cr from TN govt bank a/c

Money stolen from account with pvt bank's Chennai branch in Sept; Dept portal hacked

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chennai

UNIDENTIFIED cyber fraudsters allegedly siphoned off ₹22.10 crore from a bank account maintained with a leading private bank's CIT Nagar branch in Chennai and linked to the Tamil Nadu Rural Development Department (TNRD). The fraud came to light after the department lodged a complaint on November 3, nearly six weeks after the incident occurred in the third week of September.

The Cyber Crime Wing (CCW) of the Central Crime Branch (CCB), Greater Chennai City Police, registered a case on the same day and launched an investigation.

A senior police officer from the CCW said the fraudsters initially compromised the department's online portal, through which they accessed the bank account and siphoned off the funds. "We suspect an email containing a malicious link was first sent to the portal. Once accessed, the fraudsters took control of the portal. They then obtained the necessary details, including information about the bank account in which the funds were held," the officer told TNIE.

Preliminary investigations revealed that the fraudsters gained control of the website around September 12 or 13. They allegedly spent more than 10 days analysing the portal and identifying its vulnerabilities before siphoning off the money.

The officer said the fraudsters, after gaining control of the portal, manipulated the website and generated fake approvals for funds amounting to ₹14 crore for Mandapam Panchayat Union in Ramanathapuram district, ₹3.10 crore for Nagapattinam Panchayat Union and ₹5 crore for Dharapuram Panchayat Union in Tiruppur district.

HC's 2024 procurement guidelines not followed in purchase of books

THE judges lamented that the fraudulent procurement could have been avoided had the directions been followed.

"If only the comprehensive directions issued by us in the year 2024 had been followed, we are certain that procurement would not have been made from dubious entities such as 'Agal Vilakku', 'Sigma' and 'Phoenix' publishers," the bench observed.

The judges said they were satisfied with the response of the newly appointed Director of Public Libraries, RV Shajeevana, who appeared through video conference at the court's request, and Additional Advocate General B Saravanan, who assured them that the DVAC had taken cognisance of the matter and effective action was being taken. However, they expressed concern that such an egregious breach of the court's order had undermined its majesty, adding that they could not remain silent.

The bench pointed out that its 2024 directions merely reiterated provisions already contained in the Tamil Nadu Public Libraries Act, 1948 (TN Act 24 of 1948), and the rules framed under it. Public libraries were established to promote social justice, empower and educate people, the judges said. Stocking them with bogus books containing false information and works attributed to phantom authors not only violated the statutory duties under the Act but also infringed the right to access accurate and quality information, they added.

The bench directed librarians concerned to immediately prepare an inventory of the suspect books and remove them from the shelves. It also ordered the authorities to submit photocopies of all relevant records and disclose the amount spent on procuring the books.

The Director of Public Libraries was specifically directed to file a report detailing the entire sequence of events and naming everyone involved. The judges also sought a list of officials responsible for the fraudulent procurement over the past two years, so that they could be added as contemnors in the case. The matter will be heard again on November 11 at 2.15 pm.

Kallakurichi MLA Vignesh denies misconduct claims

"I'm doing my duty on a regular basis. There is CCTV footage and heavy security at the collector's residence. You can check them to see if I did anything wrong."

Reacting to the claims regarding his drinking habits, Vignesh said, "I'm at my office till evening attending to people's grievances. I'd even opted for a blood test to prove that my health is clean."

Vignesh, an MSc graduate from Moongilpadi village, runs a private cricket turf in Kallakurichi. Sources said that he joined the TVK nearly eight months before the 2026 Assembly election and was chosen as the candidate based on his ability to afford campaign expenses.

Reacting to the issue, Member of Parliament and DMK deputy general secretary Kanimozhi Karunanidhi on Monday said the allegations show the threat faced by women at the hands of TVK MLAs and the government.

She questioned if the Chief Minister would take steps to ensure the safety of the senior woman official.

Meanwhile, Rishivandhiyam legislator Vasantham Karthikeyan submitted a petition to Kallakurichi SP Shahnaz, seeking protection for the collector and other women officials.

Vasantham demanded a CB-CID or CBI probe for a fair investigation.

58-year-old woman beats alcoholic son to death

RAMANATHAPURAM: A 58-year-old woman was arrested for allegedly beating her son to death with a stick following a quarrel at their house in Sathankulam near Ramanathapuram on Sunday night. The deceased was Karuppasamy (41), who was living with his mother, Anguthai (58), after his wife died. According to police, Karuppasamy allegedly returned home intoxicated daily and quarrelled with his mother. Angered by his behaviour, Anguthai allegedly took a stick and attacked him. Karuppasamy sustained severe injuries and died following the attack. The Kenikkarai police sent the body to the Ramanathapuram Government Medical College Hospital for postmortem. ENS
