MBA STUDENTS FROM SAVEETHA ENGINEERING COLLEGE ENGAGE WITH FINANCIAL EXPERTS AT ANMI CONVENTION

Recently MBA students from Saveetha Engineering College participated in the 15th ANMI International Capital Market Convention organized by the Association of National Exchange Members of India (ANMI) in Chennai. The theme of the conference was "Tech, Trade and Trust – Shaping the Future of India's Capital Markets". The event featured engaging discussion with speakers from SEBI, NSE, BSE, NSDL, CSDL and major stockbroking firms.

In the inaugural session, Shri Tuhin Kanta Pandey, Chairman, SEBI, and other industry leaders discussed the rapid evolution of India's capital markets driven by technology and investor growth, and highlighted the need for robust risk management and state-of-the-art infrastructure.

The day-long convention continued with several interesting panel discussions divided into three critical thematic sessions. The "Tech" session detailed how AI-driven analytics, algorithmic trading, block chain-based settlements, and digital platforms are transforming India's capital markets, driving efficiency, transparency, and inclusivity. The various panellists in the "Trade" panel examined the innovations that are transforming trading practices in India's capital markets, highlighting how emerging technological innovations are driving market liquidity, improving execution quality, and attracting investors. The final thematic session on "Trust" examined the critical role of trust and transparency, focusing on governance frameworks and best practices in the capital markets.

The convention allowed students to interact with and learn from renowned industry leaders, pioneers and experts from India's capital market industry. Special thanks go to our Knowledge Partner, Business Standard, for facilitating this opportunity to supplement classroom inputs with industrial experience.
