

Ministers praise Modi for record 8,931 days in public life

Press Trust of India
New Delhi, March 22

TOP UNION ministers on Sunday complimented Prime Minister Narendra Modi for setting a record of 8,931 days in public life, first as the Gujarat chief minister and now as the Prime Minister.

“PM Narendra Modi is now the longest-serving head of a government in India. Pure devotion to the nation and its people defines PM Modi ji,” Defence Minister Rajnath Singh said.

“Today, he surpasses the 8,930-day record of former Sikh chief minister Pawan Kumar Chamling, achieving a historic milestone. With 8,931 days in public office as head of government, this moment reflects his deep commitment to nation-first governance, integrity in action, and tireless service to every citizen,” he said.

‘No difference between the two’: Former JD (U) leader Tyagi joins RLD

Press Trust of India
New Delhi, March 22

FORMER JD(U) leader K C Tyagi on Sunday joined the Rashtriya Lok Dal (RLD), saying there is no difference between the two parties as both follow the ideals of former prime minister Chaudhary Charan Singh and socialist leader Ram Manohar Lohia.

Tyagi said he has come to the party not to become an MLA or an MP but to see RLD chief “Jayant Chaudhary becoming like (his grandfather) Chaudhary Charan Singh”. He vowed to carry forward the vision and ideals of Charan Singh during his stint in the RLD, which, like the JD(U), is an ally of the BJP and a constituent of the NDA.

The veteran socialist leader joined the RLD along with his supporters in the presence of party president and Union minister Jayant Chaudhary at an event here.

Tyagi had on Tuesday announced his exit from the JD(U), without citing any reason. He was associated with the JD(U) since it came into existence in October 2003 with the merger of the Samata Party and Janata Dal.

Tyagi served the JD(U) in various capacities, including as its chief general secretary, chief spokesperson and political adviser, during his stint with the party led by Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar.

Welcoming Tyagi to his party, Chaudhary asserted that he will provide “new energy and strength” to the RLD. He also welcomed all other leaders who joined his party alongside Tyagi.

Tyagi later told PTI: “There is no difference between the RLD and JD(U). The leaders who have been the guiding figures for both parties are the same: Chaudhary Charan Singh, Dr Lohia, and Karpoori Thakur.”

AHEAD OF ASSEMBLY ELECTION

4 cops injured in RPG attack on commando post in Assam

Sukrita Baruah
Guwahati, March 22

A POLICE commando post was attacked by suspected militants at Jagun in Assam’s Tinsukia district in the early hours of Sunday, leaving four police personnel injured.

IGP (Law & Order) Akhilesh Kumar Singh said the post was hit by sophisticated rocket-propelled grenades (RPGs). “One of the grenades entered a window in the building and exploded inside the room, leading to the injuries to four personnel. It caused a fire, because of which one of the personnel received burn injuries. All four of them are currently receiving medical treatment,” he said.

Later on Sunday, the Paresh Baruah-led ULFA (I) claimed responsibility for the attack. In a statement, the proscribed outfit claimed that the attack was in response to “repeated actions” and operations against its members. It called the attack a “message” to deter further operations.

Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma called the attack “condemnable”. “The Army and police have launched a combined counter-insurgency operation. I think those who have done it will be caught,” he said. IGP Singh said the post that

Paresh Baruah-led ULFA (I) claimed responsibility for the attack, stating it was in response to “repeated actions” against its members was targeted is located in a thinly populated area. “The attack took place around 2.15 am. There is a sentry outpost, but this is in an area surrounded by forests in all directions, and there is not much of a population here. When the security personnel retaliated, the attackers fled,” he said.

The attack comes just weeks ahead of the Assembly election in Assam, scheduled to take place on April 9. This is the first time that elections will be held in a single phase in the state, something that officials have attributed largely to the “improved law and order” situation.

Ahead of the election, the state has requested the Centre for 800 companies of Central Armed Police Forces (CAPF), of which 200 have arrived in the state so far. “There will be more forces coming in, and we will be further increasing our security arrangements after this incident,” said Singh.
