Bank of India Launches Nationwide "Mega Samjhauta Campaign" for Loan Settlement

In a significant move to assist borrowers facing financial difficulties, the Bank of India's Asset Recovery Department (Hyderabad Zone) has announced the commencement of a nationwide "Mega Samjhauta Campaign" scheduled from 16th to 20th March 2026. This initiative is specifically designed to facilitate the resolution of Non-Performing Asset (NPA) loan accounts through a One-Time Settlement (OTS) mechanism at all branches, zones, and FGMOs across the country.

Recognizing that many borrowers have been unable to meet their repayment obligations due to genuine distress—such as business downturns or medical emergencies—the bank is offering specialized OTS schemes for both small-value and mid-size accounts. These schemes include substantial discounts aimed at providing a viable exit route for those in debt. The bank describes this five-day window as a "Golden Opportunity" and encourages all eligible NPA borrowers to come forward and settle their accounts to regain financial stability.

Bhadradi Bank Chairman Cherukuri Krishnamurthy's Birthday Celebrations

Khammam: The birthday celebrations of Bhadradi Bank Chairman Cherukuri Krishnamurthy were held on a grand scale at the bank's headquarters in Gandhi Chowk, Khammam. Speaking on the occasion, Bank CEO Dasari Venugopal highlighted that Bhadradi Bank, which started with a single branch in 1997, has now expanded to 25 branches and earned the distinction of being the fourth-largest cooperative bank in the state. He noted that the bank is approaching a turnover of 1,000 crores and provides quality banking services to thousands of customers.

Venugopal credited this growth to the leadership of Chairman Krishnamurthy, stating that the institution currently provides employment to over 250 people. He remarked that what began as a small sapling in 1996 has today transformed into a massive tree, expressing hope that the bank will continue to emerge as a top-tier institution in the future. In honor of Krishnamurthy's birthday, several social service activities were also organized. The event saw the participation of Bank AGM Nagubandi Srinivasa Rao, various branch managers, and the head office staff.
