'Badr-ul-Zama forced me to adopt Islam'

Shukla, originally from MP's Sagar district, said he had met Badr-ul-Zama, Kallou, Naem, Nizam and their six associates at a dhaba in Chhattisgarh in 2014. The group promised him a better life if he relocated to Pratapgarh. They even promised to arrange a matrimonial alliance for him.

Shukla waited for two more years before he accepted the offer and reached Pratapgarh in 2016. But his dream destination turned into a nightmare as Badr-ul-Zama took him captive and made him do the household work for the next 10 years!

Shukla claims Badr-ul-Zama and his associates took him to Dawood Nagar mosque and forced him to embrace Islam. The accused also got him a new Aadhaar issued in the name of Sher Khan using forged documents. Shukla told police that he was forced to eat meat and his fake Aadhaar was misused by the accused for their works.

The man made 3-4 attempts to escape but in vain. Finally, on Sunday, he gave a slip to Badr-ul-Zama and reached the police outpost at Derwa in Pratapgarh. "Whenever I tried to escape, they caught me, thrashed me and threatened to kill me," he told police in his complaint.

Pratapgarh SP Deepak Bhukar said based on Shukla's complaint, an FIR was registered with Jethwara police under various sections of BNS, and section 3 and 5(1) of the Uttar Pradesh Prohibition of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act, 2021, on Monday.

AIIMS woman doc harassed, racially abused

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Gorakhpur: A disturbing incident of harassment and racial abuse has been reported in Gorakhpur where a female doctor from Nagaland, currently in her third year of obstetrics and gynecology at AIIMS, was allegedly stalked and assaulted by three men.

As per report, the incident occurred on Feb 22 around 8 pm when the doctor was returning from a mall. The accused reportedly followed her for nearly 1.5 km, hurling obscene remarks and racial slurs. One of them allegedly removed his shirt to intimidate her.

Near gate number two of AIIMS, close to the Army camp, one of the men allegedly touched her inappropriately. The doctor raised an alarm, forcing the trio to flee.

Shaken by the ordeal, she reported the matter to the North East Federation of All-India Resident Doctors (NAFORD). The federation later took to social media platform X, tagging the Chief Minister's Office and wrote: "A third-year resident in obstetrics and gynecology at AIIMS Gorakhpur was subjected to serious racial harassment and sexual assault. On Feb 22, three men stalked her, hurled abuses and one even removed his shirt to intimidate her before physically assaulting her near Gate No. 2."

Senior superintendent of police Kaustubh confirmed that an FIR has been registered under relevant sections at AIIMS police station. CCTV footage has helped identify a motorcycle linked to the accused, and four police teams have been deployed to track them down. Authorities have assured strict action once the culprits are apprehended.
