

Pak declares 'Open War,' bombs Kabul

Largest bombardment of Afghanistan capital and first strikes on southern base of Taliban since 2021

ISLAMABAD

PAKISTAN on Friday said it was in an "open war" with Afghanistan after its forces killed more than 270 Taliban fighters and injured over 400 others in airstrikes in response to what Islamabad described as the cross-border attack by the Afghan Taliban.

Afghanistan's Taliban government spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid said that Afghan forces killed 55 Pakistani soldiers and targeted what he described as "important military objectives" inside Pakistan.

by Pakistan in Afghanistan's border areas on Sunday. Pakistan responded by hitting targets in Kabul, Kandahar and Paktia under 'Operation Ghazab Ili Haq' early Friday. The 2,611-km-long border between Pakistan and Afghanistan is known as the Durand Line, which Kabul has not formally

China calls on both countries to reach truce

Beijing: China on Friday called on Pakistan and Afghanistan to work out a ceasefire while expressing concern over the escalation of the conflict between the 2 countries. China is closely following the developments of situation in conflict between Pakistan and Afghanistan recognised.

"Our patience has run out. Now there is an open war between us... Now it will be 'Dama Dam Mast Qalandar'. Pakistan's army did not come from across the seas. We are your neighbours; we know your ins and outs," Pakistan's Defence Minister Khawaja Asif said.

Pakistan Army spokesperson Lt Gen Ahmad Sharif Chaudhry said that the Taliban came armed with quad-copters and small and big weapons, but the response by Pakistan was so effective that they were repulsed completely at all 53 places and "we gave effective response to target all 53 places".

A Taliban government spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid said that the recent strikes were intended to send a clear message that "our hand can reach their collar," adding that any "malicious act" by Pakistan would be answered "in Islamabad."

Mujahid said that during last night's retaliatory operations, 19 Pakistani military posts and two headquarters were seized. PTI

Trump unhappy with Iran and seeks more talks

WASHINGTON/GENEVA

US President Donald Trump says he's "not happy" with the way Iran talks are going but that he'll "see what happens" after additional talks that the US plans to hold with the Middle Eastern country over its nuclear program.

Trump made the comments to reporters as he left the White House on Friday. "I'm not happy with the fact that they're not willing to give us what we have to have. I'm not thrilled with that. We'll see what happens. We're talking later," he said.

Trump suggests 'friendly takeover' of Cuba

Washington: US President Donald Trump on Friday suggested a "friendly takeover" of communist-led Cuba, as the longtime US nemesis suffers an economic crisis. "They have no money, they have no anything right now. But they're talking with us and maybe we'll have a friendly takeover of Cuba," Trump said. He told reporters at the White House that Secretary of State Marco Rubio was dealing with the issue at a "very high level".

demands. Trump wants a deal to constrain Iran's nuclear program, and he sees an opportunity while the country is struggling at home with growing dissent following nationwide protests. Iran also hopes to avert war, but maintains it has the right to enrich uranium and does not want to discuss other issues, like its long-range missile program or support for armed groups like Hamas and Hezbollah.

Al-Busaidi said technical talks involving lower-level representatives would continue next week in Vienna, the home of the International Atomic Energy Agency.

Secretary of State Marco Rubio will make a quick trip to Israel early next week. Agencies

The US held hours of indirect negotiations Thursday over Tehran's nuclear program but walked away without a deal, leaving the danger of another Mideast war on the table as the US has gathered a massive fleet of aircraft and warships in the region.

Oman's Foreign Minister Badr al-Busaidi, who mediated the talks in Geneva, said there had been "significant progress in the negotiation" without elaborating.

But just before the talks ended, Iranian state television reported that Tehran was determined to continue enriching uranium, rejected proposals to transfer it abroad and sought the lifting of international sanctions, indicating it was not prepared to meet US President Donald Trump's demands.

Anthropic stands firm on AI safety rules

WASHINGTON

AI company Anthropic said Thursday it would not give the US Defence Department unrestricted use of its technology despite being pressured to comply by the Pentagon.

"These threats do not change our position: we cannot in good conscience accede to their request," Anthropic chief executive Dario Amodei said in a statement.

Washington had given the artificial intelligence startup until Friday to agree to unconditional military use of its technology, even if it violates ethical standards at the company, or face being forced to comply under emergency federal powers. Amodei said Anthropic models have been deployed by the Pentagon and intelligence agencies to defend the country but that it draws an ethical line regarding its use for mass surveillance of US citizens and fully-autonomous weapons.

"Using these systems for mass domestic surveillance is incompatible with democratic values," Amodei said. AFP
