Excise 'scam': Court upholds CBI for using phrase 'South Group'

New Delhi: A Delhi court, which on Friday discharged former chief minister Arvind Kejriwal and 21 others in the politically-charged liquor-policy case, expressed its disapproval with the CBI for using the phrase "South Group" while cautioning it to exercise restraint in its choice of language. The court also said such a nomenclature finds no foundation in law, does not correspond to any legally-cognisable classification and is wholly alien to the statutory framework governing criminal liability.

"The court considers it necessary to place on record its concern with the repeated and deliberate use of the expression,

"South Group", by the investigating agency to describe a set of accused persons, ostensibly based on their regional origin or place of residence," Special Judge Jitendra Singh said. "It is equally significant that no comparable regional descriptor has been employed for the remaining accused persons. The prosecution narrative does not speak of any 'North Group' or similar categorisation.
