

are required to get their vehicles tested at authorised pollution checking centres and affix the issued sticker on their vehicles as proof of compliance. However, many owners have questioned the durability of the stickers provided. This has led to inconvenience for vehicle owners, who fear being penalised despite having valid PUCs. Authorised pollution testing centres have informed vehicle owners that the stickers are prepared and supplied by the Transport department. Since the PUC certificate remains valid for six months, vehicle owners have urged the state Transport department to issue better-quality, durable stickers that can withstand weather conditions and remain intact for the entire validity period.

paternal house at Kalapadar village under Sanakhemundi block in Ganjam district to pay the last respect to the departed soul.

Guru Badatya was the unsung hero in the world of religious plays, particularly 'Ramayan' and had shown his directorial excellence in more 50 exclusive 'Ramayan' plays during his illustrious career. His love for the art began at the age of 10 when he performed acting and singing.

"His contribution to more than 7,000 operas and bhajans in his long span of career leaves

Besides Ramayan, Guru Badatya was deeply involved in promoting Odia folk, art and culture. Apart from performing across Odisha, he was able to spread his artful presentations in states like Chhattisgarh, Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh and Maharashtra, with special dedication to Odias residing there.

Sanakhemundi MLA Ramesh Chandra Jena, block chairman Simanchal Patra, sarpanch, local leaders, his followers and students paid their last respect to the departed soul before the funeral in his village.

the tusker attacked him. Informed, Forest department personnel reached the spot and sent the body for postmortem. Officials said compensation would be provided to the bereaved family as per government norms. Notably, another person was killed in a tusker attack near the foothills of Dumerchuan Mundher reserve forest under Jhankarpalli section of Sambalpur Sadar range. The deceased was identified as Panchanan Paik, 38, of Halipali village. In the same incident, Sukanti Pradhan, 66, of Raslapali village under Jhankarpalli panchayat, was critically injured.
