

Ensure nutritious food at Anganwadi centres: Collector Anurag

Yadadri Bhongir TSIT: District Collector Anurag Jayanti stated that quality nutritious food must be provided to the children, pregnant women, and nursing mothers visiting Anganwadi centers. On Wednesday, the District Collector visited the Anganwadi center located in Vangapalli village of Yadagirigutta Mandal. On this occasion, he comprehensively inspected the management and services being provided at the center. He inquired with the staff regarding the total number of children registered at the Anganwadi center and the daily attendance of the children. He also asked whether the children were being served delicious, high-quality food every day in accordance with the menu prescribed by the government. He personally inspected the meal served to the children on that day and verified whether food quality and hygiene standards were being adhered to. He instructed the staff to prioritize hygiene during food preparation. He emphasized that special attention should be paid to the children. He inquired about the daily educational and recreational activities conducted for the children. He personally interacted with the children, encouraged their talents, and asked them to recite the alphabet (ABCs).

Safe motherhood vital for healthy society: Nirmala Reddy

Sangareddy, April 08 (TSIT) TGIIC Chairperson Nirmala Jayaprakash Reddy stated that a healthy society can be built only through safe motherhood. As part of the Health Week programs under the Praja Palana Pragathi initiative, a "Safe Mother Day" event was organized on Wednesday at the Medical College auditorium under the aegis of the Medical and Health Department.

On this occasion, awareness was created on essential healthcare services for pregnant women. A workshop was also conducted for doctors covering topics such as ANC check-ups, reduction of maternal mortality rate, C-sections, high-risk pregnancies, emergency care, and the PCPNDT

Collector, MLA inspected by Wardhannapet CHC as part of Public Governance – Progress Plan 99 days activity.

WARANGAL (TSIT) : Wardhannapet Constituency MLA KR Nagaraju and District Collector Dr. Satya Sharada conducted a surprise inspection of Wardhannapet CHC Area Hospital on Wednesday as part of the 99-day activity of Public Governance – Progress Plan. On this occasion, MLA KR Nagaraju spoke to the inpatients and got their views on the medical services provided to them. It has been suggested that doctors should be punctual and that government hospitals should provide services at par with private hospitals.

District Collector Dr. Satya Sharada said that she expressed her displeasure over the non-implementation of biometric attendance in the hospital. Expressing anger against the responsible officials, she warned that strict action would be taken if they were negligent in their duties. It was suggested that the special cleanliness and health protection programmes conducted by the state government from April 6 to 12 should be effectively implemented to provide quality treatment in government hospitals.

She was directed to keep the premises of the hospital clean, dispose of useless and damaged items through condemnation process and submit relevant reports. The officials were directed to pay special attention to issues such as ensuring timely treatment of patients, availability of medicines, attendance of staff and cleanliness of the hospital. The District Collector visited the hospital wards and advised all the staff to attend duty wearing identity cards. The superintendent was directed to ensure that the CC cameras work properly, to set up an audio announcement system in the hospital and to inform the public of the toll-free number.

KITS Warangal Student Wins Global Hackathon Grand Prize

WARANGAL, April 7 (TSIT): Pavushetty Yashwanth Krishna, a student of Kakatiya Institute of Technology & Science (KITS) Warangal, has brought laurels to the institute by winning the Grand Prize at the prestigious international "TestSprite" hackathon held in March 2026. Announcing the achievement, V. Lakshmikantha Rao said Yashwanth was the only participant selected from India and secured the first prize along with a cash award of $1,500 (around Rs.1.4 lakh). He congratulated the student for making the institution and the country proud. V. Satish Kumar highlighted that Yashwanth has consistently excelled at international platforms.
