Officials Vijay Kumar, Krishnaveni and Maqsood Ali and manager of Bhushan Raopet Telangana Grameena Bank conducted an awareness programme on financial literacy and saving from school level at Zilla Parishad High School Konapur in Kammarpally mandal on Saturday. They explained that the money saved and earned can be saved in bank in the form of savings account, recurring account and fixed deposit. They also informed about how banks will provide loans such as education loans, gold jewellery loans, housing loans, crop loans, etc. Some of their other words of caution were that students and parents should be aware of cyber crimes, not to open messages from unknown links, not to be cheated by online marketing agencies who pretend to be known to people on social media, not to believe cyber lottery claims and not to tell anyone personal details such as debit card, credit card, ATM card PIN numbers.
