BRS ALLEGES STATEWIDE LAND ENCROACHMENTS, CALLS FOR PUBLIC UPRISING

From Our Staff Reporter
Hyderabad, April, 7: Intensifying its attack, the opposition BRS party alleged widespread land encroachments across multiple regions, including Nadergul and Pargi. The party leaders accused the ruling Congress government of collusion and misuse of power, claiming farmers were being intimidated and displaced. The party urged the youth to amplify the issue on social media and vowed to continue protests until justice is served.

BRS party state general secretary R.S. Praveen Kumar, at a press conference in Telangana Bhavan, lashed out at Telangana Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy and Revenue Minister Ponguleti Srinivas Reddy accusing them of large-scale land grabbing. He alleged violations in Nadergul land dealings and demanded immediate arrests of those involved within 72 hours. Warning officials of legal consequences, he claimed public wealth worth Rs.7,000 crore was being misused instead of welfare. If necessary, the CM and the revenue minister should earn their livelihood by working as daily wage laborers at junctions like L.B. Nagar, Boduppal or even as salesmen in shopping malls instead of resorting to land grabbing, he remarked and warned that their party would not remain silent if they continued to loot the assets belonging to people of the state. He expressed his outrage over their refusal to heed the High Court's ruling - which explicitly declared that the 374 acres of land in Nadergul belong to the state government - and their continued attempts to grab the land by coercing and intimidating the government officials.

Further, the BRS leader asked as to why the police officials were turning a blind eye while a company- of which Ponguleti Srinivas Reddy's son Harsha Reddy, serves as a Director - was engaging in land encroachment? He asserted that the officials, acting in collusion with the Revenue Minister and with the backing of the Chief Minister, were seizing valuable government lands.
