

72 TMT LPG, over 2.3L MT crude oil set to arrive at Vizag Port

Three vessels are expected to bring 24 TMT of LPG each before the end of this month; port is scheduled to get substantial volumes of crude oil in coming weeks

USHA PERI @ Visakhapatnam

AMID ongoing global developments influencing energy supply chains, Visakhapatnam Port is set to receive multiple consignments of liquefied petroleum gas (LPG) and crude oil over the coming days, according to port sources.

A total of 72,000 tonnes (72 TMT) of LPG will arrive in three separate shipments beginning Friday. The LPG carrier BW Birch is expected on March 27 with 24 TMT of cargo, transhipped from within India. Two additional vessels, namely Hellas Gladiator and Gas Jupiter, are scheduled to arrive on March 30, each carrying 24 TMT. While Hellas Gladiator has loaded its cargo from the Netherlands, Gas Jupiter is transporting LPG sourced from the United States.

In addition to LPG, substantial volumes of crude oil is also expected to the port. Approximately 99,898 MT of blended crude oil will be brought in by MT Desh Gaurav, which is scheduled to arrive at 20:00 hrs on April 5. The vessel has loaded its cargo at Mundra and is handled by agent AVBGPR.

Further, MT Jumbo is expected to arrive on March 27 (PM hours) carrying 136,728 MT of crude oil sourced from Russia.

Another tanker, MT Fondeya, is scheduled for arrival on April 2 (PM hours) with 96,542 MT of crude oil, also of Russian origin.

Both vessels are represented by agent NAVSHIP. Together, these shipments account for a significant inflow of crude oil to the port over the next week.

Recent weeks have also seen steady LPG traffic at the port. The LPG carrier Lupinus, carrying 22 TMT from Qatar, arrived on February 26 and sailed on March 3. Similarly, AI Wukir brought 26 TMT from the UAE, arriving on March 7 and departing on March 12.

Crude oil handling at the port has remained active throughout March. MT Swarna Brahmaputra carrying 68 TMT arrived on March 1 from Kakinada and sailed on March 8 after backloading 64 TMT of crude bound for Mumbai. MT Swarna Sindhu arrived on March 6 from Mumbai and departed on March 8.

MT Desh Vishal made two calls, first arriving on March 7 with 204 TMT of crude from Basra, Iraq, and sailing on March 10, and again on March 12 with 112 TMT from the same port before departing on March 14.

Among other vessels, MT Velora carrying 140 TMT from Novorossiysk, Russia, arrived on March 13 and sailed on March 15, while MT Delta Kanaris with 102 TMT from Gentil, Gabon, arrived on March 17 and departed on March 18.

MT Swarna Ganga (79 TMT from Mundra) and MT Swarna Godavari (67 TMT from Kakinada) both arrived on March 20 and sailed on March 22.

Another vessel, MT Swarna Sindhu, arrived on March 22 with 82 TMT from Kakinada and was shifted to anchorage on March 24.

Most recently, MT Centurion I carrying 100 TMT of crude oil from RU ULU, Russia, arrived on March 25 and continues discharge operations at the port.

Port officials maintained that these scheduled arrivals and recent movements are part of ongoing logistics operations to meet regional energy requirements.

Properties worth ₹70 crore of Raj Kesireddy attached in liquor case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@ Vijayawada

THE State government has issued ad-interim orders to attach properties worth ₹70 crore, belonging to Kesireddy Rajashekhar Reddy alias Raj Kesireddy, the prime accused in the multi-crore liquor scam during the previous YSRCP regime.

According to the GO issued on Thursday, three properties identified were worth ₹70 crore and the investigating agency found that the accused purchased them with the illegitimate money obtained through commissions from distilleries.

Following a complaint from the Andhra Pradesh State Beverages Corporation Limited (APSBCL) that large-scale illegalities took place in the implementation of the excise policy in the State during 2019-24, particularly relating to the manual issuance of OFS (Order of Supply) to promote certain liquor brands, abnormal increase of prices, payment of commissions and kickbacks and decisions taken by the public official

Registered sale deeds undervalued

The pattern of transactions shows undervaluation in registered sale deeds compared to the actual open market value, with large portions of the consideration being paid in unaccounted cash

cial results in undue pecuniary advantage to several individuals and entities, CID registered a case, and found that ₹3,400 crore loss was incurred to the State exchequer and role of several persons in the scam. During investigation, several immovable properties have been identified, which are obtained or acquired by means of commission of the offence.

Several properties acquired by Raj Kesireddy were identified in Telangana in the names of his parents, which were purchased from multiple sellers.

“On verification of the document No.1174/2024, dated 10.05.2024 of SRO Shabad and evidential witness statements, it revealed that although the land total extent of 20 acres was registered at ₹2.69 crore while the actual consideration was ₹70 crore. However, ₹67.3 crore was paid in cash (unaccounted), derived from the wrong gains from liquor scam kickbacks and purchased land in the name of his mother by Raj Kesireddy,” read the GO.

Zero tolerance to drug smuggling in State: DGP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@ Vijayawada

DIRECTOR General of Police Harish Kumar Gupta said the police have intensified their efforts of curb the cultivation, sale and transportation of ganja and other narcotic substances across the State.

He said more than 100 notorious and repeated offenders in ganja cases were charged and sent to jail invoking the PITNDPS Act, mentioning that a zero tolerance policy is being observed in NDPS Act cases.

In an official release on Thursday, the DGP said a statewide crackdown is being implemented under the supervision of Elite Anti-Narcotics Group for Law Enforcement (EAGLE) chief Ake Ravi Krishna “Between February 24, 2025 and March 26, 2026, a total of 101 detention orders were issued against hardcore narcotics offenders across the State. District-wise, the highest number of cases was reported in NTR (25), followed by ASR (18), East Godavari (17), Visakhapatnam (11), Anakapalli (10), Tirupati (10), Vizianagaram (8), and Nellore (2),” he explained.

Strict enforcement of the law has had a strong deterrent effect on so-called “blade batch” criminals-local anti-social elements who assist drug syndicates in transportation, distribution, and protection. The stringent measures have disrupted drug networks, and helped restore public order. The DGP reiterated the government’s commitment to making Andhra Pradesh a drug-free State.

Workshop on gaming Act for CID sleuths

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@ Vijayawada

APCID conducted a workshop on the promotion and regulation of Online Gaming Act, 2025, and the Andhra Pradesh Gaming (Amendment) Act, 2025 at its headquarters in Mangalagiri on Thursday.

CID chief Ravishankar Ayyanar said they have been actively organising training programmes and seminars to enhance the professional skills and investigative capabilities of officers. He highlighted the importance of continuous capacity building to effectively tackle the growing challenges posed by betting-related offences and cyber-enabled crimes.

The session was conducted by Rajaram Surianarayanan, a public policy expert, and was attended by 50 CID officers.
