2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words) The candidate has been selected on the basis of his strong academic qualifications, proven achievements, and merit. He holds an M.Phil. in Management and an LL.B., and is a recipient of the National Youth Award conferred by the President of India, reflecting his commitment to public service. With over 16 years of experience in governance, law, and community development, he has contributed to policy and social initiatives. His integrity, long-standing association since 2008, and absence of any adverse record further justify his selection, beyond mere electoral considerations.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words) The selection process prioritized merit, experience, public service record, and suitability for effective representation. While other individuals may not have had any criminal antecedents, they lacked the comparable qualifications, policy experience, and grassroots engagement demonstrated by the selected candidate. The allegations against the candidate arise from local disputes and are not indicative of criminal propensity. Therefore, considering his proven track record, integrity, and ability to serve the public interest, he was found to be the most suitable choice.
