NASHIK: Nida Khan, the 26-year-old allegedly absconding employee of the BPO linked to Tata Consultancy Services in Nashik, moved the Nashik Sessions Court for anticipatory bail on Saturday. Khan is one of eight accused in the case relating to alleged sexual harassment and religious coercion at the BPO in Nashik. While seven accused have been arrested, Khan eludes law-enforcement authorities, although her family says she is not absconding. All eight employees have been suspended. Nida's defence lawyers, Rahul Kasliwal and Baba Sayyed, said the court is expected to take up Khan's anticipatory bail application for hearing on Monday.

"She has been falsely implicated in the case. She does not have any record of any kind of criminal activity," said Kasliwal. The Nashik city police have registered nine FIRs against eight employees of the TCS-linked BPO, including one FIR against Khan. The FIRs were registered in Nashik between March 26 and April 3, following complaints from nine employees, who accused senior colleagues, including team leaders, of alleged sexual abuse, other kinds of harassment and religious coercion. In the FIR against Khan, registered at the Devlali police station, one of the victims has accused her of hurting religious sentiments, making objectionable comments about a Hindu deity. Although initial media reports had claimed that Khan was the HR manager at the BPO, TCS has since issued a statement saying she did not occupy that post and was a "process associate".

The police have set up three teams in Mumbai to trace and arrest Khan. Meanwhile, a four-member fact-finding team of the National Commission for Women (NCW) has started investigations into the high-profile case, which began as an inquiry into workplace misconduct but rapidly expanded in its scope following multiple complaints.

One of the commission's members, Monika Arora, said they would speak to all stakeholders in the case as a part of the investigation. The team is likely to visit the firm's office in Nashik on Sunday. Meanwhile, the court of additional chief judicial magistrate R C Narwadiya, on Saturday extended the police custody of two accused, Raza Memon and Shafi Shaikh, till April 20.

In her order on Saturday, the judge observed, "After perusing the case diary and FIR it appears that there is a progress in investigation." She said that the mobile phone of Memon had been seized by the police and the investigation officer also collected WhatsApp chats of the complainant. "...therefore it clearly indicates that the accused persons tried to outrage the modesty of victim by sending such obscene messages," the judge said.

Extending the police custody, she said that with the help of cyber experts of the forensic department, it would be necessary to collect the data from the accused's mobile phone.

For that reason, the judge said, the police custody of the accused was justified.

PUNE AIRPORT OPS RESUME AFTER IAF JET'S HARD LANDING

HT Correspondent
ludhiana@hindustantimes.com

PUNE: Flight operations at Pune airport resumed on Saturday morning after the runway was cleared and declared operational following an overnight closure caused by a hard landing of an Indian Air Force (IAF) fighter aircraft, officials said.

A fighter aircraft experienced an issue in the undercarriage during landing around 10.25 pm on Friday, causing the runway to be blocked. Pune airport director Santosh Dhoke said in a press statement, "As per SATCO, IAF, the aircraft became immobilised. Both pilots are safe. Due to the aircraft's position and damage, a NOTAM was issued for temporary runway closure until 5.30 am, later extended to 9 am to facilitate safe removal, inspection, and restoration," he said.

Later, IAF said on X, "The runway has now been restored and declared operational. All necessary safety inspections and clearances have been completed..."

Concerns being raised over FBI chief Patel's conduct

Agencies

letters@hindustantimes.com

WASHINGTON: Concerns have emerged over Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) director Kash Patel's conduct and leadership within the White House and the agency, with some current and former officials alleging excessive drinking and erratic behaviour.

Patel briefly panicked earlier this month after being locked out of an internal FBI system due to a technical glitch, believing he had been fired. The issue was later found to be a malfunction, but the episode triggered confusion within the agency and among lawmakers, according to a report in The Atlantic.

The report also cited concerns among officials about Patel's conduct, including allegations of heavy drinking at private events and during trips, which at times affected his schedule.

It said some meetings were rescheduled and that security personnel had, on occasion, struggled to reach him.

An official cited in the report said, "We're all just waiting for the word" that Patel is out of the job. It also said that some of his FBI colleagues were beginning to worry that his behaviour was a threat to public safety.

It further said some administration officials have discussed potential replacements, though Donald Trump continues to back Patel. At the same time, The Atlantic noted that "Patel has held on to his job in part because of his commitment to using the federal government to target political or personal adversaries of the president."

Patel rejected the allegations and threatened legal action.

"See you and your entire entourage of false reporting in court... But do keep at it with the fake news, actual malice standard is now what some would call a legal lay up," he said. White House officials also defended him, praising his performance.

India condemns UN peacekeeper's killing

HT Correspondent

letters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: India on Saturday strongly condemned an attack on personnel of the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon (UNIFIL) that killed a French peacekeeper, and urged the government of Lebanon to investigate the incident and bring the perpetrators to justice.

French President Emmanuel Macron identified the dead peacekeeper as a French national and suggested in a statement that Hezbollah was responsible for the attack.

"We strongly condemn the attack that took place today on French UN peacekeepers deployed in UNIFIL. We pay our homage to the fallen Blue Helmet and wish a speedy recovery to the three other peacekeepers who were injured," the external affairs ministry said in a statement.

"We urge the government of Lebanon to urgently investigate this attack, bring its perpetrators to justice, and ensure accountability for this crime against UN peacekeepers," the statement said.

The ministry noted that India piloted the UN Security Council Resolution 2589 on Accountability for Crimes against Peacekeepers, and reiterated the importance of respecting the "sanctity and inviolability of UN premises and personnel".
