The political fallout has been real, especially after the 2023 G20 summit,

CSIS puts these networks under “politically motivated violent extremism,” or PMVE. In simple terms, that category covers people who try to force political change through violence or the threat of violence.

The report also lands in a tense diplomatic setting. Canada and India have spent the past few years trading grave accusations, especially after Ottawa said Indian agents were linked to the 2023 killing of Sikh activist Hardeep Singh Nijjar in British Columbia. India denies that charge. At the same time, India's long-standing

Canada's position is clear on paper. Peaceful support for Khalistan, however controversial, is protected political expression. That protection does not
