Iran hits after US ships enter Hormuz

Missiles, drones fired at UAE as US says it opened passage in Strait of Hormuz, 3 Indians injured

DUBAI/WASHINGTON

A drone strike caused a fire at an energy installation in the emirate of Fujairah, UAE on Monday, and left three Indian workers injured hours after President Donald Trump said US guided-missile destroyers crossed the Strait of Hormuz.

"Three Indian nationals sustained moderate injuries and have been transferred to the hospital to receive necessary treatment," the Fujairah media office said in a post on social media. The UAE's defence ministry and state news agency said a fresh Iranian barrage had targeted the country.

"Four cruise missiles launched from Iran were detected toward various areas across the country. Three were successfully engaged over the country's territorial waters, while one fell in the sea," the defence ministry said.

In Oman, two people were injured when a residential building was targeted in Bukha along the coastline of the Strait of Hormuz, state media reported.

The US military said it has opened a passage through the Strait of Hormuz and reached out to dozens of shipping companies to encourage navigation through the waterway.

Admiral Brad Cooper, commander of US Central Command, told reporters during a phone news conference that US military helicopters have sunk six Iranian small boats that were targeting civilian vessels in the Strait of Hormuz. It is the latest test of the ceasefire between Iran and the US.

WAR WATCH

Earlier, the US military said two American-flagged merchant ships had successfully transited the strait. The military's Central Command said the two American-flagged merchant ships were "safely headed on their journey" after transiting the Strait of Hormuz. It said Navy guided-missile destroyers in the Persian Gulf were helping to restore traffic.

Its statement on X said that US destroyers had also transited the strait. It did not say when the Navy ships arrived or when the merchant vessels departed. In response to Trump's announcement, a senior Iranian official warned on Monday that Tehran would consider any US attempt to interfere in the Strait of Hormuz a breach of the ongoing ceasefire.

"Any American interference in the new maritime regime of the Strait of Hormuz will be considered a violation of the ceasefire," Ebrahim Azizi, head of the national security commission in Iran's parliament, posted on X.

Negotiations break down

Tehran: Iran's latest proposal for ending the war calls for the US lifting sanctions, ending the blockade, withdrawing forces from the region and ceasing all hostilities, including Israel's operations in Lebanon, according to the semiofficial Nour News and Tasnim agencies, which have close ties to Iran's security apparatus. Iranian officials said they were reviewing the US response, though Foreign Ministry spokesperson Esmail Baghaei told reporters Monday that changing demands made diplomacy difficult. He did not give details. Iranian leadership has claimed its proposal does not include nuclear program and enriched uranium

Hezbollah says fighters clashed with Israel soldiers

Smoke rises after Israeli airstrike in south Lebanon | AFP

BEIRUT

HEZBOLLAH said its forces clashed with Israeli soldiers on Monday in south Lebanon near the border where the troops are still operating, despite a ceasefire since April 17.

Hezbollah said in a statement that after Israeli troops attempted to advance near the town of Deir Seryan—which is inside the Israeli-declared "yellow line" where Lebanese residents have been told not to return—its fighters "opened fire on the enemy force and engaged in heavy clashes with them".

The Israeli military confirmed there were clashes with Hezbollah fighters in south Lebanon. "Earlier today, two IDF soldiers were moderately injured as a result of a close-quarters encounter with Hezbollah terrorists in southern Lebanon," the military said in a statement.

"The soldiers were evacuated to receive medical treatment at a hospital."

Lebanese President Joseph Aoun on Monday said a security deal and an end to Israeli attacks were needed before any meeting with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, sought by Washington.

Aoun's office said in a statement that the president "reiterated his view that the timing is not appropriate now for a meeting" with Netanyahu. AFP

3 dead in suspected virus outbreak on Atlantic cruise ship

PRAIA

THREE people have died on a cruise ship in the Atlantic, the WHO said Sunday, one a confirmed case of hantavirus—an illness usually transmitted to humans from rodents. The outbreak occurred on the MV Hondius, travelling from Argentina to Cape Verde.

"To date, one case of hantavirus infection has been laboratory confirmed, and there are five additional suspected cases," the World Health Organization told AFP. "Of the six affected individuals, three have died and one is currently in intensive care in South Africa."

Earlier Sunday, South Africa's health ministry told AFP there had been an outbreak of a "severe acute respiratory illness", which had killed at least two people, with a third in intensive care in Johannesburg.

The patient treated in Johannesburg tested positive for a hantavirus, a family of viruses that can cause hemorrhagic fever, South African spokesperson Foster Mohale said.

In its statement, the WHO said hantavirus infections "are typically linked to environmental exposure). "While rare, hantavirus may spread between people, and can lead to severe respiratory illness and requires careful patient monitoring, support and response." The first person on the cruise to develop symptoms was a 70-year-old passenger. He died on board the ship and his body was currently on the island of Saint Helena, a British territory in the South Atlantic, Mohale the South African spokesman said.

His 69-year-old wife also fell ill on board and was evacuated to South Africa, where she died in a Johannesburg hospital, he said, adding that they were not yet able to confirm the victims' nationalities. The third case, a 69-year-old Briton, was also evacuated to Johannesburg, where he was being treated in intensive care. WHO chief Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus said in a post on X that the agency was working with the ship's operators and member states affected. Earlier Sunday, a source close to the case speaking on condition of anonymity had said a Dutch couple were among the dead. The third fatality was still on board the ship. AFP
