

Krisanu Dev Ray excels in MBBS final exam

GUWAHATI, May 7: Krisanu Dev Ray, a student of Gauhati Medical College, secured the 22nd rank at the state level in the recently declared MBBS final examination results, bringing recognition to his home district of Bongaigaon.

Hailing from Kakojiana village in the district, he also secured the 12th position within Gauhati Medical College. Krisanu is the elder son of Manabendra Dev Ray, Secretary of the Information, Public Relations, Printing and Stationery Department of the Assam government, and Monalisa Roy.

Toll gate irks organizations

STAFF REPORTER

SONAPUR, May 7: Allegations have repeatedly surfaced against the toll gate authorities for allegedly harassing and misbehaving with local residents in the name of toll collection.

Even media personnel were reportedly not spared from the alleged misconduct of the toll gate authority, namely Ankit Tendon Enterprises, located at Nazirakhat.

Local residents have also levelled serious allegations that the authorities are collecting toll taxes from vehicles parked at homes without following transport laws or regulations.

Against this backdrop, an important meeting was held on Thursday at the office of the Dimoria Co-District Commissioner under the mediation of the Dimoria Co-District administration between local organisations of Dimoria and the toll gate authorities.

During the meeting, the local organisations demanded that the earlier decision of the toll gate authorities not to collect toll taxes from private vehicles and small commercial vehicles such as Maxis belonging to areas under the Sonapur Revenue Circle must continue to remain in force. They stated that the exemption had earlier been secured following a mass public movement led by the people and organisations of Dimoria at the time of the establishment of the toll gate at Nazirakhat in Sonapur.

The organizations further warned that if their demands are not fulfilled by May 13, they will launch a massive agitation against the “outsider” toll gate authority.

NFR steps up measures to prevent buffalo dashing

GUWAHATI, May 7: Northeast Frontier Railway (NFR) has intensified measures to prevent buffalo dashing incidents in the Lumding-Badarpur Hill Section under Lumding Division.

The railway has undertaken fencing work near vulnerable tunnel areas to prevent cattle from entering railway tracks.

Around 150 metres of fencing between Tunnel No. 16 and Bridge No. 262 has already been completed, while work near Tunnel Nos. 10 and 12 is underway.

NFR has also launched awareness drives in villages near the New Haranjao-Ditokcherra section, where such incidents were frequently reported. Railway officials, along with local bodies, distributed pamphlets and displayed posters to sensitise residents about the dangers of livestock straying onto tracks.

The initiative aimed to improve train safety and prevent accidents involving cattle in the strategically important hill section, a press release said.
