Meanwhile, the Crime Branch's Special Task Force (STF) has intensified its investigation to ascertain Imran's activities in recent years. "Prima facie, it appears Imran was honey-trapped into joining the radical group, purportedly through a woman on social media. The social media account appears to be fake, and more details have been sought from the authorities concerned," said CB IG Sarthak Sarangi.

Imran's three close friends have been identified, and they are being questioned to gather details about his past activities. "We will also seek his interrogation report from Delhi Police to carry out our further investigation," Sarangi added.
