CM Vijay inducts IUML Leader in coalition Govt

Tamil Nadu witnessed major coalition developments after Chief Minister Joseph Vijay expanded his diverse Cabinet ministry significantly.

Press Trust Of India

CHENNAI: Heralding a new era of coalition government, Tamil Nadu Chief Minister C Joseph Vijay on Friday completed his Cabinet expansion exercise by inducting two more MLAs, including a Dalit from the VCK, making it a rainbow ministry that also has Brahmins. Senior VCK leader Vanni Arasu, a close aide of party chief Thol Thirumavalavan and IUML MLA A M Shahjahan took oath as ministers. Governor Rajendra Vishwanath Arlekar administered them the oath of office and secrecy at simple ceremony in the Lok Bhavan. Chief Minister C Joseph Vijay and others participated. The induction of VCK and the IUML legislators apparently irked the DMK and its senior leader A Raja targeted the two parties, initially with a social media post which was later allegedly deleted, and another tweet attacking them.

DIRECT TRAIN

Jodhpur-Haridwar direct train soon:Vaishnaw

Press Trust Of India

JODHPUR: Railway Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw said on Friday that a direct train service between Jodhpur and Haridwar will be launched by March 2027, following strong demand from passengers. The railway minister was in Jodhpur to inaugurate a 20-coach Vande Bharat Express train, replacing the existing 8-coach service. Vaishnaw said that, keeping in mind the increasing demand from tourists and regular travellers, the new 20-coach train is being introduced. "Based on continuous demand, we have increased its capacity from 8 coaches to 20 coaches," Vaishnaw said. He informed that a coaching terminal for Vande Bharat Sleeper and other trains will be set up in Jodhpur, which will help increase train services in western Rajasthan. Vaishnaw also announced the extension of the Sabarmati-Jodhpur train service to Jaisalmer and the inauguration of a coaching maintenance depot there.

When local leaders gathered at the inauguration ceremony for Vande Bharat, and demanded a direct train from Jodhpur to Haridwar, Vaishnaw assured them saying he was aware of the need and that work was underway to start the service by March 2027. While the 8-coach reserved train from Jodhpur to Delhi Cantt departed at its scheduled time of 5.30 am on May 22, the inaugural run of the 20-coach train began at around 1.30 pm. "Since it is an inaugural run, it is carrying some unreserved passengers railway officials and media persons. Most of the seats are unoccupied; however, once it becomes part of scheduled operations, we expect a huge response," a railway official said. Officials said the enhanced-capacity train will officially replace the 8-coach service in scheduled operations from May 25.

TMC holds meeting outside KMC

KOLKATA: Trinamool Congress councillors of the Kolkata Municipal Corporation (KMC) on Friday conducted the civic body's monthly meeting outside its main chamber, after finding it "locked" since morning, party leaders said. The session was subsequently held in the club room of the civic body under the leadership of KMC Chairperson Mala Roy. The reason behind the chamber remaining locked was not immediately known.

"The chamber was locked since morning. After an initial discussion with the councillors, it was decided that the session would be held in the club room instead," Deputy Mayor and Councillor of Ward No 11, Atin Ghosh, said. The councillors arranged for chairs and tables on their own and began the proceedings in the club room, he said. "The session continued as scheduled. We made alternative arrangements and started the proceedings," Ghosh said.

Meanwhile, the first monthly meeting of the KMC after the recent assembly polls, scheduled for Friday, was cancelled through a notification issued on Wednesday. "There has been no clarification from the KMC Commissioner's office regarding the cancellation," a senior official of the civic body said.
