Final notification for Bidadi township by June-end: DKS

BENGALURU, DHNS: The state government will issue the final notification for acquiring about 7,481 acres for the proposed Greater Bengaluru Integrated Township (GBIT) near Bidadi by the end of June, Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar said on Wednesday.

The deputy chief minister asserted that a majority of the farmers were in favour of the project despite opposition from a section of landowners and political leaders.

Addressing reporters, Shivakumar said around 80% of farmers of farmers have extended support to the township project and are requesting the government for faster compensation and implementation.

"We will begin issuing village-wise final notifications over the next one and a half months. Compensation will be provided up front for farmers who are in favour of the acquisition. If the land is not acquired, we will

Bluru civic polls: SC extends final deadline till Aug 31

Court agrees that census, SIF resulted in staff shortage

ASHISH TRIPATHI NEW DELHI, DHNS

The Supreme Court on Wednesday granted extension till August 31 to the Karnataka government and the State Election Commission for concluding elections to the five municipal corporations in Bengaluru, stating that no further extension would be granted.

A bench of Chief Justice of India Surya Kant and Justices Jyotsna Banerjee and Viji Kumar had earlier granted the extension. The extension was granted after an under-taking that the polls would be conducted by June 30.

Both the state government and the SEC filed pleas seeking three more months for the purpose, stating that the staff shortage is impacting the quality of education at government schools and it should be addressed immediately.

The officials informed the CM that they were waiting for resolution of the internal reservation issue, and since it has been resolved, they will submit the proposal and also issue a notification. According to the officials, they will complete the recruitment process within 100 days after getting a nod from the Finance Department.

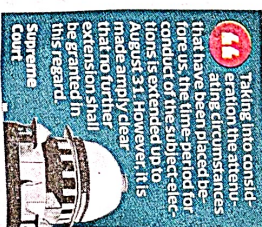

A recent report from NITI Aayog highlighted the shortage of teachers. The sanctioned strength of teachers is 1,78,935 for 41,088 government schools; however, 38,163 posts are vacant, according to the report.

Schools, the CM said all 800 schools should be ready in two years and directed the officials to take necessary steps.

Bowing wall collapse: CS orders case against contractor

BENGALURU, DHNS: Chief Secretary Shalini Rajnesh has directed the Health and Family Welfare Department to lodge a criminal case against a contractor who had dumped debris near the compound wall of the Bowring and Lady Curzon Hospital in Bengaluru, which allegedly contributed to the wall's collapse on April 29 that killed seven people.

The report also recommended action against four health department engineers who were in charge of a construction project, the debris from which was dumped near

Taking into consideration the circumstances that have been pleaded for for the conduct of the municipal elections, the court has granted an extension till August 31. However, it is made amply clear that no further extension shall be granted in this regard.
