

BJP ALSO WINS SAMPLA, A STRONGHOLD OF HOODA

BJP sweeps Haryana civic polls, Cong pushed to margins

PM hails BJP victory: 'symbol of trust in double engine gov'

Sukhbir Siwach
Chandigarh, May 13

THE BJP on Wednesday swept the municipal elections in Haryana, securing six of the seven civic bodies, with only Uklana municipal committee chief's post going to a 23-year-old independent candidate. The BJP also delivered crushing defeats to its main rival Congress in the mayoral contests, where victory margins ranged from more than 21,000 votes to over 36,000.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi hailed the results saying it once again showed people's unwavering faith in the development and good governance policies of the BJP-led NDA government.

"This victory is also a symbol of the trust that the people of Haryana have in the state's 'double-engine government'," Modi said in a post on X in Hindi. He expressed gratitude to the Haryana voters, hailing them for the BJP's "spectacular victory" and also congratulated the party workers.

The polls, held on May 10, elected mayors and ward councillors in the municipal corporations of Ambala, Sonipat, and Panchkula, along with the president and councillors of the Rewari municipal council and the municipal committees of Sampla, Dharuhera, and Uklana.

The results confirmed emphatic BJP wins in Panchkula, Ambala and Sonapat civic bodies, as well as victories in Rewari, Sampla and Dharuhera.

For the mayor's post in Ambala, BJP's Akshita Saini defeated Congress rival Kulwinder Kaur by 21,358 votes. In Panchkula, BJP's Shyamlal Bansal defeated Congress candidate and

Woman's burnt body found in forest in Sirmour

Nahan: A woman's partially burnt body was found in a forest near police battalion camp, close to Dhaulai Kuan village on the Chandigarh-Dehradun Highway in Himachal Pradesh's Sirmour Wednesday, police said. The identity of the woman has not yet been established. DSP Manvendra Thakur said the actual cause of the woman's death would only be established once the post-mortem report is received. Police have registered a case, and the matter is being investigated.

It is suspected that a vehicle may have been used to transport the woman's body to the forest, and police were scrutinising CCTV footage from the surrounding areas. PTI and former president of the state Mahila Congress Sudha Bhardwaj by 36,252 votes. In Sonipat, BJP's Rajiv Jain (61) trounced his Congress rival, Kamal Dewan, by 23,247 votes.

At present, the sitting mayors in three municipal corporations of Panchkula, Ambala and Sonapat are from the BJP.

BJP also won the president's post in Rewari municipal council where party's Vinita Pippal defeated Congress's Neharika by 21,445 votes.

Among municipal committees, BJP's Satyanarayan secured Dhuruhera defeating Independent candidate Babu Lal by 6,236 votes while Congress finished third. Uklana broke the pattern where Independent candidate Reema Soni, backed by Congress and INLD, defeated BJP's Nikita Goyal by 2,806 votes to be elected president. Saini hit out at the Congress, saying that people have once again rejected them. "The public no longer trusts Congress and other opposition parties, as they engage solely in the politics of falsehoods. Congress always takes support of lies, people

The saffron party clinched the president's post in the municipal committee of Sampla, a stronghold of former Haryana chief minister Bhupinder Singh Hooda. BJP's Praveen bagged the seat by defeating Independent candidate Ankit by 687 votes.

Responding to the BJP's win in Sampla, Hooda said that the Congress had not fielded a candidate there. "As a matter of policy, Congress does not contest elections for municipal commit-have understood this," he said, adding the grand old party's "real face has been unmasked".

On the BJP's win in Sampla, Saini said, "People don't trust Hooda anymore. He speaks lies. Our government is working with honesty and transparency, fulfilling the promises made to people."

Haryana BJP chief Mohan Lal Badoli thanked the voters for reposing their trust in the party. He said the BJP's victory in Sampla is indicative of the public mood and outright rejection of the Congress.

Haryana Congress in-charge BK Hariprasad, however, accused the BJP of misusing government machinery to secure victories in the civic body polls. "We had already complained to the State Election Commission about discrepancies in the voters' list. They may have the government, but we will continue to fight them," he said.

For BJP, the victory comes close on the heels of the party's big wins in West Bengal and Assam. The party also improved its performance significantly. In the December 2020 municipal elections, Congress had won the Sonipat mayoral seat, while BJP, which contested the elections with its then ally JJP, narrowly prevailed in Panchkula. Ambala had gone to the Haryana Jan Chetna Party, BJP had secured Rewari, while Sampla was taken by an Independent backed by Hooda. JJP had suffered setbacks in Uklana and Dharuhera, where Independents triumphed.

Uklana the anomaly as 23-year-old stuns BJP — with backing from Cong & INLD

Sukhbir Siwach
Chandigarh, May 13

THE HARYANA municipal poll results reaffirmed the ruling BJP's edge across several civic bodies on Tuesday, yet the spotlight fell on Hisar district's Uklana, where 23-year-old student Reema Soni surprised many by defeating the saffron party's candidate.

Contesting as an independent candidate with backing from the Congress and later the INLD, she defeated the BJP's Nikita Goyal, daughter-in-law of senior party leader Shrinivas Goyal, by a margin of 2,806 votes. Soni secured 7,078 votes against Goyal's 4,272, in an election that saw a turnout of 75.7 per cent, with 11,744 votes cast out of 15,507 registered voters.

Uklana's contest drew unusual attention as the BJP deployed its top brass, including backed Soni, with local MLA Naresh Selwal campaigning vigorously, and the INLD joining in just ahead of the election.

On the other side, Congress

Initially perceived as a Baniyas-versus-non-Baniyas contest, the election gradually shifted in Soni's favour. She defeated Goyal in 14 out of 16 wards, including the one where
