Nalgonda

According to sources, Shanil Goud set himself on fire during protest at the Narsampet bus stop. Colleagues rushed in and doused the flames before shifting him to the hospital. Doctors at MGM Hospital said he suffered 60-80% burn injuries.

Narsampet TGSRTC employees gathered for protest, causing traffic jams on the Khammam-Narasaraopet road.

He was later shifted to a private facility in Hyderabad for advanced treatment. His condition was described as "serious".

Linga Reddy was admitted to a private hospital, where his condition was reported to be critical.

The government has made arrangements for specialised medical treatment for the injured demonstrators in Hyderabad.

Ponnamp Ram Prasad said the government was open to resolving people's demands, but insisted on revision and merger issues. He said he had constituted committees to examine them. Ministers D Sridhar Babu, C Dandekar, Rajnarainasahib and K. V. Venkat Reddy were also urged to restrain.

In Khammam, police said they were examining the circumstances, including a possible personal dispute, behind an incident involving Linga Reddy.

In Nalgonda, another driver, R. Venkateswarlu from Mirygalakota, attempted self-immolation at a depot by pouring kerosene over him. Time and again, police intervened in time and shifted him to hospital.

The incidents led to a strike by RTC workers, with gatherings at depots and slogans raised against the government.
