

Annamalai's initiative gains traction as BJP cadre jump ship

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Coimbatore

FOLLOWING former BJP state president K Annamalai's announcement of a new political movement, several BJP cadre and functionaries have joined his "We the Leaders" initiative.

Several BJP functionaries, including former Coimbatore South district president K Vasantharajan, who was denied a ticket during the Assembly elections, and present district president R Chandrasekar quit the saffron party and joined Annamalai's movement. Out of 22 mandal presidents in Coimbatore South district, 14 have resigned from the BJP, along with their supporters, to join the new outfit.

While addressing mediapersons on Friday, former BJP Coimbatore district president Balaji Uthama Ramasamy -- a known Annamalai loyalist -- along with his supporters, backed the new initiative, which he called an "alternative political force" to all parties.

He said that the future of Tamil Nadu politics would see a direct competition between TVK leader Vijay and Annamalai, adding that the supporters would financially assist Annamalai in running his outfit. "After Annamalai resigned from the BJP, we also quit the party and joined this new organisation. It is not just BJP members; a large number of the general public, people from various political parties, and even members of the ruling party, are joining us," he added.

On electoral plans, Balaji said, "Annamalai had already announced that his outfit would contest in general elections; whether it is a by-election or a local body poll is yet to be decided. Even though Annamalai has not officially announced his policies, we have an understanding of what he will declare."

Further, Balaji said the party Annamalai is set to launch would have "people-centric policies" and that everything would be "transparent as the cadre and the public would fund the party".

Two inmates at Kovai prison booked for assault on warder

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Coimbatore

TWO inmates at the Coimbatore Central Prison were booked in a fresh case for allegedly assaulting a prison warder, who has been admitted to Coimbatore Medical College Hospital with injuries. This marks the second assault involving inmates at the prison within a week.

According to police, the inmates have been identified as Jayamani Kumar and Anand, both convicted prisoners around the age of 40. On Thursday, when three inmates, including Anand and Jayamani Kumar, were in the 29th block area, another remand prisoner was speaking to his advocate. Prison rules prohibit interaction between remand and convicted prisoners on the jail premises. Thus, when some of the convicts were allegedly seen interacting with the remand prisoner, a Grade II constable on duty, Vellaipandi, questioned the former. Subsequently, the warder reported the incident to the prison superintendent, who conducted an inquiry. Infuriated over the inquiry, the two inmates allegedly attacked Warder Vellaipandi, who was immediately admitted to Coimbatore Medical College Hospital, said sources. Based on Vellaipandi's complaint, the Race-course police registered a case and initiated an investigation.

Sources said the two suspects were transferred to the Coimbatore Central Prison around two months ago as part of disciplinary action. Jayamani was shifted from Palayankottai Central Prison, while Anand was moved from Cuddalore

Central Prison.

This is the second such incident reported from the Coimbatore Central Prison in the past week.

Earlier, a group of five prisoners was shifted to other prisons for allegedly assaulting one K Karthi (35), the prime suspect in the sexual assault and murder of a 10-year-old girl near Sullur.

Sources said a detailed inquiry into the assaults is being conducted under Prison Superintendent Senthil Kumar. Also, prison authorities are reviewing security measures inside high-security blocks, with officials warning action against those violating prison rules.

Cabinet meeting held to review 5-yr project plans: Sengottaiyan

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Coimbatore

REVENUE Minister KA Sengottaiyan said the state government had convened a cabinet meeting for the first time in Tamil Nadu to chart out the completion of all departmental projects and schemes within a five-year timeframe, terming it a 'historic meeting'.

Addressing reporters at Coimbatore Airport, Sengottaiyan also spoke on the recent state-wide raids conducted by the DVAC. Dismissing concerns about law and order, the minister said, "There are no law and order issues in the state. Opposition parties already declared that they would let us run the government independently for the first six months, and no one would question the government."

He said the CM had submitted a letter to the Prime Minister stressing the need to prevent water projects like the Mekedatu dam that could affect the Cauvery River water. He denied that the alliance was named 'Tamil Nadu Social Justice Progressive Front', as claimed by Congress functionary Praveen Chakravarty.

DMK MP slams TVK govt over med seat issue

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Coimbatore

DMK MP P Wilson slammed the state government for failing to contest a Supreme Court order that directed the surrender of 152 super-specialty medical seats to the All India Quota (AIQ), depriving in-service government doctors of opportunities.

Addressing mediapersons in Ooty on Friday, he said the state government's inaction led to the Supreme Court order on May 29, which was issued based on a writ petition filed by an individual.

"The Supreme Court had previously upheld 50% in-service reservation for doctors working in government hospitals to strengthen healthcare services in the state," he said.

Wilson compared the current scenario with 2022, when seats were surrendered because there were no takers after two rounds of counselling.

"This time, nearly 97 in-service doctors have applied, but they are unable to secure seats due to high percentile cut-offs. Super-specialty seats are created with state funds and clinical material from Tamil Nadu patients. Allowing students from other states to occupy these seats would mean they would eventually serve elsewhere, while local doctors ready to serve the state are being denied opportunities," he added.

50-year-old pillion rider of bike taxi killed in road accident

Coimbatore: A 50-year-old man was killed in a road accident on Thursday while returning home on a bike taxi. He was killed after the bike taxi in which he was travelling was knocked down by a truck at Chinthamanipur junction. Police have identified the deceased as Senthilvelu (50), a resident of Teachers Colony. Senthilvelu had gone to a place near Sullur on Thursday. He booked a ride back to his residence using a ridesharing service. At Chinthamanipur traffic signal, a truck that came from behind knocked down the two-wheeler when the rider attempted to make a right turn. Police said Senthilvelu died on the spot, and the rider suffered injuries. Police shifted the body to the Government Medical College and ESI Hospital for a postmortem.
