Deputy Commissioner and District Election Officer Shilpa Sharma on Wednesday appealed to voters, political parties and the general public to extend full cooperation to the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) 2026 of electoral rolls which is being taken up by the Election Commission of India to make voter lists more accurate, error-free and transparent.

Addressing a press conference at her office in Bidar, Ms. Sharma said that the revision exercise will include a house-to-house enumeration drive during which Booth Level Officers (BLOs) will visit households to collect and verify voter details. The information gathered during the survey will be used for revision, correction and updating of electoral rolls.

Bidar Deputy Commissioner and District Election Officer Shilpa Sharma addressing a press conference on the Special Intensive Revision 2026 of electoral rolls at her office in Bidar on Wednesday. SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

She said that October 1, 2026 has been fixed as the qualifying date for the revision exercise. Preparatory work and training programmes will be conducted from June 20 to 29, while a house-to-house survey will be carried out from June 30 to July 29.

Information gathered during survey to be used for revision, correction and updating of electoral rolls

The draft electoral rolls will be published on August 5. Claims and objections can be submitted between August 5 and September 4. Disposal of claims and objections will be completed by October 3 and the final electoral rolls will be published on October 7, she said.

Ms. Sharma said that the survey will facilitate inclusion of newly eligible voters, updating of details of shifted voters, deletion of names of deceased voters and other necessary corrections in the electoral rolls. She urged citizens to provide the required documents and extend cooperation to BLOs during the verification process.

She said that after publication of the draft rolls, voters will have an opportunity to verify their names, addresses and other particulars and submit claims or objections within the stipulated period if any discrepancies were noticed. All applications will be examined and disposed of in accordance with the prescribed rules, she added.

Emphasising that electoral rolls revision is one of the most important processes in a democracy, the Deputy Commissioner called upon all stakeholders to participate actively in ensuring that the voter list remains complete, accurate and transparent.

Additional Deputy Commissioner Shivanand B. Karale and officials from various departments were present at the press conference.

Family urged to take back old woman

BELAGAVI

Officers with the family members of the abandoned old woman (left, seated) in Salolli village of Belagavi district on Wednesday. SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

A team of district administration officers has convinced the family members of Kamalamma Katti, a woman from Salolli village who was abandoned by her family, to take her back.

Kamalamma Katti was abandoned by her family in Munavalli of Belagavi district on Tuesday.

The team of officers took the woman to hospital for a health check-up on Wednesday.

Santosh Katti was counselled to take his mother back home.

"The team that included two women officers ensured that the woman was taken home and cared for," officers said.

Meanwhile, the former Minister Laxmi Hebbalkar has instructed officials to take steps to ensure proper rehabilitation of the woman.

She has also sought strict legal action against Santosh Katti, a NWKRTC employee from Salolli village, who abandoned his mother near the Naviluteertha Dam on Tuesday.

The former Minister for Empowerment of Women, Children and Senior Citizens said that such inhuman treatment of elders is unacceptable.

She requested Deputy Commissioner Mohammad Roshan and Superintendent of Police K. Ramarajan to take steps to provide treatment and security to the woman and initiate action against her son who abandoned her.
