

Minister Pijush Hazarika holds departmental review meeting

Assam Rising, Nagaon, June 9: Newly appointed Guardian Minister of Nagaon district, Pijush Hazarika, visited Nagaon today and assumed the office of the guardian minister of Nagaon district. Besides, he also held a detailed review of the work and functioning of all government departments. Hazarika, who also holds the Agriculture and Irrigation portfolios, chaired a meeting at the conference hall of the District Commissioner's office. Reviewing the Chief Minister's 'Atmanirbhar Asom Abhijan' and 'Mukhyamantri Mahila

Udyamita Scheme', he said that while the government's decision to provide jobs to 2 lakh people is welcome, it alone will not be enough to solve unemployment. He stressed that self-employment through the newly launched schemes must create sustainable livelihoods. Under the 'Mukhyamantri Atmanirbhar Asom Abhijan', arrangements will be made for 10 lakh youths for self-employment, the minister informed. He added that beneficiaries of loans under the scheme must ensure proper utilization and work diligently. Hazarika also laid emphasis on increasing agricultural production in the district and raising the number of registered farmers. Expressing deep concern and dissatisfaction over the fact that irrigation schemes in Nagaon cover only a very small area of farmland, the minister directed officials to prepare an action plan immediately to revive defunct or non-functional projects. He announced that he would visit Nagaon again soon to conduct a detailed review of every department's performance. "Most of the items we use in daily life come from outside. The state can progress only if our youths get involved in production-oriented work and reduce this dependence," he said. This was Hazarika's first visit to Nagaon district after being inducted into the new cabinet. MLAs Rupak Sarma of Nagaon-Batadroba, Jitu Goswami of Barhampur, Shashikanta Das of Raha, Mehboob Muktar of Dhing, Tanzil Hussain of Samaguri, and Nurul Huda of Rupohihat were present, along with almost all MLAs of the district. District Commissioner Devashish Sarma welcomed the minister at the start of the meeting and assured that all officials are committed to taking the district forward based on his guidance. The DC greeted the minister with a gamosa and sorai. Senior Superintendent of Police, District Development Commissioner, CEO of Zila Parishad, Additional District Commissioners, and heads of all departments also attended. The minister interacted with everyone present. Earlier in the day, Hazarika also attended a similar review meeting in Hojai district, stated in an official press release here.

Highway Blockade as Anger Mounts Over Death of Class III Student

Assam Rising, Tamarhat, June 9: Tamarhat in Assam's Dhubri district remained tense on Tuesday following the death of an eight-year-old schoolgirl, allegedly due to medical negligence at the Tamarhat Primary Health Centre. The incident triggered widespread outrage, with hundreds of residents blocking National Highway 127(B) at Hatidhura while staging a protest with the child's body. The deceased, Khadija Parbin, a Class III student of Daspara LP School and daughter of Jahar Ali Sheikh of Oxiguri village, had reportedly been bitten by a venomous snake on Sunday. Her family rushed her to the local health centre, where they alleged that pharmacist Ekramul Hoque Talukdar neither administered proper treatment nor referred the child for emergency care in the absence of a doctor. Instead, he allegedly assured the family that the situation was not serious and sent the girl home. According to family members, Khadija's condition deteriorated shortly afterwards. She was being shifted to Dhubri Medical College and Hospital when she succumbed on the way. The incident sparked massive protests, with demonstrators demanding immediate dismissal of the accused pharmacist, transfer of a doctor posted at the health centre, compensation of ₹10 lakh for the bereaved family, and improved healthcare facilities for the poor. Vehicular movement on the highway came to a complete halt during the agitation.
