ACTION COMES AFTER LATEST REPORT BY SIT

Court orders fresh case against CPM and CPI leaders in Sabarimala 'gold theft' controversy

THE KERALA High Court on Monday directed the SIT, probing the alleged theft of gold from Sabarimala temple, to register a criminal case against two LDF leaders and senior executives who were at the helm of the Travancore Devaswom Board (TDB), which manages the temple, from 2023 to 2025.

The latest involves CPI(M) leader and TDB ex-president PS Prasanth and TDB ex-member and CPI leader A Ajikumar. Last year, the SIT had registered two other cases in which CPI(M) leader and former legislator A Padmakumar was arrested. The cases pertained to the theft that allegedly took place in 2019 during the period of the first Pinarayi Vijayan-led LDF government in the state.

The new case involves allegations regarding further transportation of the idols to Chennai in 2023, during LDF government's second consecutive term.

The cases were registered after the HC found that the Dwarapalaka idols at the temple, originally gold-clad in 1998, were transported in 2019 to a firm in Chennai at the behest of Unnikrishnan Potty, allegedly under the guise of funding and overseeing a fresh gold-plating. However, it was found that when returned, the idols were allegedly missing some of the gold that was already on them.

The court said, "In order to conceal the pilferage and misappropriation of the gold in 2019, the sponsor (Potty), the TDB leadership, and others at the temple entered into a criminal conspiracy to once again transport the Dwarapalakas to Chennai under the guise of carrying out fresh gold plating."

In the latest case, apart from the LDF leaders, Potty is among the other accused. The charges against them include criminal conspiracy, criminal breach of trust and forgery. The Bench of Justices Raja Vijayaraghavan and KV Jayakumar directed registration of the case when the SIT submitted its latest probe report.

On the alleged conspiracy behind the decision to take the items again for gold plating in 2023, when P S Prasanth was TDB president, the court said, "This was done despite being aware that such action was contrary to the provisions of the Devaswom Manual as well as the court directions, and despite knowing that the same was intended to conceal the earlier acts of misappropriation and would result in further loss to the Devaswom." The court said Potty allegedly influenced Prashanth to support the 2023 plan.

The SIT informed the court about the roles of others, too, including other TDB members, in the latest case.

KEY FACTS OVERLOOKED, CHILD IDENTIFIED CULPRIT, SAYS HC

Delhi HC cancels bail granted to school staff in rape case

Accused got bail a week after the incident took place on April 30

Nirbhay Thakur
New Delhi, June 30

NOTING THAT a trial court had overlooked crucial facts while granting bail to a man, accused of sexually assaulting a minor girl in a West Delhi school, within a week of his arrest, the Delhi High Court Monday cancelled the bail.

"The impugned order (lower court order) has missed the crux of the issue... as to why a minor child... would make such a complaint and would not only identify the respondent as the offender but also point out the place of occurrence... Therefore, in view of above discussions and in exercise of power under Section 528 of the BNSS (Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita) Act 2023, the impugned order is set aside to secure ends of justice," Justice Vinod Kumar said in his June 29 order.

The High Court said it was "too early" to release the accused while ignoring the victim's version, since the case was still under investigation.

"... The Additional Sessions Judge did not take into account a very important fact that in junior school, where the present incident took place, there were 10 staff members out of which only two officials were male i.e. one guard... and the respondent. Therefore, the child victim could not have made any mistake in identifying the culprit," the court said, ordering the accused to surrender on July 1. "Learned Additional Sessions Judge missed a very important fact that the victim is barely three years old and such a small child cannot be equated with an adult victim, who can narrate the facts in proper sequence with accuracy of time..."

"A child of such a tender age may appear to be incoherent and sometimes even illogical, but that does not mean that what a child is saying is incorrect... the victim narrated the incident to her mother without naming the respondent. Thereafter, she not only identified the respondent but also identified the place where the incident took place," it added.

The alleged incident took place on April 30.

On May 7, a Sessions Court in Dwarka granted bail to the accused after noting that CCTV footage showed him leaving the junior wing of the school at 8.37 am and that the medical examination revealed no visible injuries.

"While considering the application, learned trial court noted that footage retrieved from the CCTV camera depicted the respondent entering the passage leading towards the interior portion of the school premises at 8.13 am and... returning at approximately 8.37 am." the court said.

"Learned Additional Sessions Judge observed that the footage did not indicate the presence of the applicant inside the Junior Wing beyond the said time and further noted the defence contention that in another footage, the respondent can be seen entering the Senior Wing school building shortly thereafter," the HC order observed.

After the bail was granted, the Delhi Police represented by Additional Solicitor General S V Raju and Additional Public Prosecutor Aman Usman approached the High Court.

SIR begins in Delhi, 13K BLOs on duty

Press Trust of India
New Delhi, June 30

The Special Intensive Revision (SIR) began across Delhi on Tuesday, with more than 13,000 booth-level officers(BLOs) launching the door-to-door distribution of enumeration forms across the Capital's 70 Assembly constituencies.

Officials said that BLOs have been directed to visit households during the early morning and evening hours, including weekends, when residents are more likely to be at home.

Recognised political parties are also participating in the exercise through their booth-level agents , who are assisting voters in filling and submitting the forms.Delhi has 13,033 polling stations spread across seven Lok Sabha and 70 Assembly constituencies.

Each voter will receive two copies of the enumeration form to verify and update details based on the last SIR conducted in 2002.

Under the exercise, each voter will receive two copies of the enumeration form to verify and update details based on the last Special Intensive Revision conducted in 2002.

One copy will serve as an acknowledgement, while the other will be submitted to the BLO.
