

Hamas dissolves Gaza govt; UN-backed panel to run it

Technical committee to oversee civilian affairs under ceasefire deal

DEIR AL-BALAH

THE Hamas militant group said Monday it had dissolved its government in Gaza and is preparing to transfer power to a technical committee backed by the United Nations as part of a US-brokered ceasefire deal.

Hamas did not say whether it planned to take the crucial step of disarming or handing over security to an international force, but described its decision as evidence of its commitment to Gaza's reconstruction after years of war. It was unclear if the move, announced by a lower-level official, would lead to any meaningful change on the ground.

The Board of Peace, the new entity led by President Donald Trump with the mandate of governing and rebuilding Gaza, said it was aware of the Hamas announcement but said it would assess the impact based on "actions, not promises." The board stressed in a statement on X that the technocratic committee must control all weapons in Gaza, as laid out in the ceasefire agreement.

At a news conference Monday, Ismail al-Thawabta, general director of the Hamas-run Government Media Office, said "only technical and professional staff" would remain in their positions to run the Palestinian enclave's day-to-day affairs.

"All employees working in service provision are 'state employees' and are fully prepared to work under the National Committee for the Administration of Gaza," al-Thawabta said during a press conference in the courtyard of Al-Aqsa Hospital in Deir al-Balah. Hamas spokesperson Hazem Qassem called it

"a positive step forward on the path to implement the ceasefire deal."

Israel dismissed the announcement as irrelevant. An Israeli official called the reported Hamas government resignation "a spin" with "no significance". The committee of technocrats, which is based in Cairo, is chaired by Ali Shaath, a Gaza-born engineer and former official with the Palestinian Authority. It has a mandate to restore essential services and oversee civilian affairs under the supervision of the UN and Board of Peace.

Nine months after the ceasefire was signed, negotiations between Israel and Hamas remain largely deadlocked over the implementation of its second phase, including the disarmament of Hamas and the reconstruction of Gaza. Hamas has insisted on implementing the first phase before moving to discuss its weapons.

The October 7 attack killed about 1,200 people in Israel and took 251 hostages. Gaza's Health Ministry says Israel's offensive has killed 73,098 Palestinians. AP

ISRAELI STRIKE KILLS FOUR IN SOUTH LEBANON DESPITE CEASEFIRE

BEIRUT: An Israeli drone strike on a car in southern Lebanon killed four people, including three women, on Monday despite a two-week-old ceasefire between Israel and Hezbollah. Lebanon's state news agency said the victims were a school principal, her mother, a foreign domestic worker and a Syrian worker returning from inspecting a family home in Nabatieh al-Fawqa. Israel has continued strikes in south Lebanon, saying it targets Hezbollah sites and operatives. Both sides accuse each other of violating the truce. The ceasefire, which took effect on June 21 under a US- and Iran-backed agreement, was followed by a US-backed framework aimed at securing a permanent end to hostilities. Hezbollah has rejected the framework, which calls for the group's disarmament, a phased Israeli withdrawal from southern Lebanon and the deployment of the Lebanese army. President Joseph Aoun said Israel's continued presence was preventing the army's deployment in the south and urged international pressure for an Israeli withdrawal.

Russian barrage leaves 22 dead in Ukraine

KYIV

RUSSIA unleashed waves of missiles and drones at Ukraine early on Monday, killing at least 22 people in attacks that exposed widening gaps in the country's air defenses more than four years into Moscow's full-scale invasion, authorities said.

All of the ballistic missiles launched by Russia struck their targets, underscoring Kyiv's need for more U.S.-made Patriot interceptor missiles — a point Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy will likely reiterate at a NATO summit in Ankara, Turkey, this week.

Fifteen people were killed in the capital of Kyiv, which was Russia's main target, and 56 were injured, according to administrative head Tymur Tkachenko. Another seven people were killed in the wider Kyiv region and 29 were injured, according to Ukraine's emergency service.

Emergency workers searched for survivors in the rubble of residential high-rises in two locations that suffered direct hits. Moscow has stepped up attacks on Kyiv in retaliation for Ukraine's recent long-range strikes, according to the Russian Defense Ministry. Those Ukrainian attacks have caused severe fuel shortages and put pressure on President Vladimir Putin.

On Thursday, a Russian strike killed 31 people in Kyiv, the deadliest attack in the capital this year. Ukraine's advances in drone technology have given it an edge in recent months, analysts and Western officials say, striking supply routes behind the front line, stripping the Russian army of momentum on the battlefield and slowing its advance.

But Russia now is exploiting vulnerabilities in Ukraine's air defenses, which remain heavily reliant on the Patriot missile systems to intercept ballistic missiles it can rarely shoot down. The war in the West Asia has strained the global supply of Patriot interceptors — a shortage now felt keenly in Ukraine. AFP

26 killed in Lankan prison clash

COLOMBO

CLASHES broke out inside a prison in the outskirts of Sri Lanka's capital, killing at least 26 people, most of them inmates, and injuring more than 100, officials said Monday.

The unrest at the prison in Negombo started among inmates on Sunday, and when guards attempted to intervene on Monday, "they (inmates) started attacking the prison officials," prison spokesman AC Gajjanayake said. He told reporters that some inmates attempted to escape but were stopped.

An official at the main state-run hospital in the area said seven prison officials and 18 inmates had died while another 43 were being treated for injuries. He spoke on condition of anonymity because he was not authorised to speak to the media.

Three other hospitals were also treating dozens of injured, he said. Justice Minister Harshana Nanayakkara said the first clash erupted between two rival gangs connected to illegal drug trade. AP
