

Khamenei laid to rest

Seven-day funeral draws over 15 million mourners

Tehran: Iran concluded a seven-day state funeral for its late Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, with authorities claiming that over 15 million mourners attended the last rites in Iran and Iraq.

Khamenei, who led Iran for nearly 37 years, was laid to rest in his hometown of Mashhad, ending one of the largest funeral processions in the country's modern history. The funeral began last Saturday and passed through major cities, including Tehran, Qom, Najaf and Karbala, before concluding in Mashhad.

The funeral procession began at 3pm on Imam Reza Street and ended late in the evening at the Holy Shrine of Imam Reza, where funeral prayers were led by Khamenei's eldest son, Hojatolislam Seyyed Mostafa Hosseini Khamenei. The procession also honoured members of Khamenei's family who were killed alongside him, according to the IRNA news agency.

Huge crowds lined the procession route, surrounding the vehicle carrying the remains of the late leader and his family members. Mourners waved Iranian national flags and red flags symbolising vengeance, while chants of "Death to America" and "Death to Israel" echoed through the streets. The week-long ceremonies saw millions of mourners gather along procession routes, at mosques and major Shia shrines.

Khamenei became only the second ruler in Iran's history to be buried in Mashhad, after Nader Shah, who was laid to rest there in 1747. —Agencies
