‘Most Wanted’ Nabbed In Vermont

Chandigarh: Nitish Kaushal alias Lala, a 26-year-old Indian national linked to the Jaggu Bhagwanpuria organised crime group, has been arrested in Vermont, a northeastern US state bordering Canada. The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) announced the arrest on Thursday, just two days after adding Kaushal to its Most Wanted list for allegedly executing violent crimes, including kidnappings and assaults, on behalf of the Bhagwanpuria syndicate. In a statement on X, the FBI said, “Nitish Kaushal has been arrested in Vermont. Help the FBI locate other fugitives wanted for committing crimes related to criminal enterprise investigations.” Kaushal is one of 17 associates charged in a recently unsealed US federal indictment targeting the Bhagwanpuria group. A federal arrest warrant was issued for Kaushal on June 25 in the US court for the central district of California (Los Angeles) on charges of Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO) Conspiracy. According to the indictment, Kaushal is alleged to be involved in a kidnapping case where a victim was restrained at a residence in Manteca, California, assaulted and transported to an apartment in Fresno, California, on July 10, 2024. A sum of $50,000 was demanded from the victim to compensate for a stolen drug shipment belonging to the Bhagwanpuria syndicate. Later that same day, Bhagwanpuria directed his aides to release the victim in an attempt to resolve an internal dispute within the syndicate, according to the indictment. The FBI said Kaushal was wanted for his involvement in a highly organised, transnational criminal network. The group’s illicit activities span murder, kidnapping, drug and weapons trafficking, extortion, money laundering and human smuggling. Kaushal’s arrest comes close on the heels of Operation Hard Ball, a coordinated international crackdown led by the US Department of Justice and the FBI targeting India-linked transnational organised crime networks.

Interim bail denied to Al Falah univ chairman

New Delhi: The Delhi high court has refused to grant interim bail of six weeks to Al Falah University group chairperson Jawad Ahmed Siddiqui, who is in custody in two money laundering cases. Justice Saurabh Banerjee, however, permitted Siddiqui to meet his wife - a stage 4 ovarian cancer patient - on custody parole on three dates. Siddiqui sought interim bail on the ground that his wife’s health was critical and he wanted to be with her at this stage of her life. Justice Banerjee observed that there was nothing on record to show any “emergent situation”, and in fact, the medical record showed that the condition of Siddiqui’s wife was improving. “This court is not inclined to grant interim bail to the present applicant at this stage. However, in order to balance the equities as also taking a humanitarian view, this court deems it appropriate to grant custody parole to the applicant for a period of three days i.e. July 21, 23 and 25,” it ordered. Abhay Chautala’s remarks against Cong MLA spark political storm in Ellenabad

Kumar Mukesh | TNN
Hisar: A political row has erupted in Haryana after INLD leader Abhay Singh Chautala allegedly used abusive language against Congress MLA Bharat Singh Beniwal at a public meeting in Sirsa’s Ellenabad. The row began after a video of Chautala’s meeting in Gudiakhara surfaced on social media, purportedly showing him mocking Beniwal’s speaking ability, questioning his ability to raise public issues in assembly and referring to his throat ailment. The remarks drew a strong response from Beniwal, who rejected suggestions that he had remained inactive in assembly. He said despite serving multiple terms in the assembly, Chautala was remembered more for “confrontational conduct” than for ensuring the constituency’s development. Beniwal said he was undergoing treatment and speech therapy following a throat infection and would soon resume addressing public meetings. Chautala declined to engage directly with his detractors, saying he was focused on public issues.
