

Omar 'flees' Jantar Mantar in auto, says CJP supporters followed him: Jammu & Kashmir CM Omar Abdullah Tuesday said his now-viral autorickshaw ride after Monday's protest in New Delhi for restoration of statehood was a sudden decision prompted by concerns after supporters of the Cockroach Janata Party started following him. Videos of Omar sitting inside a green-and-yellow autorickshaw, carrying protest placards after the demonstration, have spread all across social media. "It was completely spontaneous," he said, talking to reporters after a presser. TNN

What and how much can court do, asks SC on paper leak case

PIL Urges Court To Examine Plea Saying 2.5 Crore Students Suffered

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: Supreme Court Tuesday expressed its reluctance in entertaining a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) seeking its intervention to check paper leaks of competitive exams and to protect interest of students, saying the scope of the plea is too vast. "What can the court do? How much the court can do," a bench of Justices P S Narasimha and Alok Aradhe said, when senior advocate Vikas Singh urged the court to examine the plea saying that more than 2.5 crore students suffered as question papers of NEET and various other exams were leaked.

The bench, however, adjourned the hearing to next month, saying it was already seized of NEET-UG paper leak case. The court was hearing a petition by advocate Ashwini Upadhyay, who submitted that such paper leaks leave students in dire straits.

"It takes a toll on students to hear criticism about their life choices, such as utilising an entire year to prepare for an exam, which eventually stands vitiated by paper leaks. Further, financial distress caused to students has a

CJP protesters remain at Jantar Mantar

The Cockroach Janta Party protesters camped at Jantar Mantar through the night despite heavy rain, tight security and a police crackdown on them during the "Sansad Chalo" march a day ago. On Tuesday morning, volunteers cleaned the protest site, while CJP founder Abhijeet Dipke apologised to supporters injured in the police action.

Heavy security remained in place around the protest venue as volunteers were seen cleaning the stage, the only structure left standing after police removed the tents and other temporary installations on Monday. Even the tent covering the stage was in a tattered condition. PTI direct bearing on their dignity," the petition said.

"The State possesses a heightened duty towards students when it conducts exams. Students place trust, and put in years of work along with money spent on coaching, study materials, commuting, rent, etc. "Essentially, the State induces students and their families to change their position based on the trust that the exams will take place as announced. When the paper gets leaked, expectations of the students get decimated. Therefore, the State is violating Article 14 (of the Constitution) of the students," the petition said.

Wangchuk in Medanta hosp after HC order

New Delhi: Activist Sonam Wangchuk was discharged from the Safdarjung Hospital on Tuesday evening and shifted to Medanta Hospital in Gurugram for further treatment in compliance with a Delhi high court order, Safdarjung Hospital authorities said.

The Delhi high court ordered immediate shifting of Wangchuk, who has been on an indefinite fast since June 28 over alleged examination irregularities, from the Safdarjung Hospital here to Medanta Hospital in Gurugram. "Sonam Wangchuk has been discharged from VMMC and Safdarjung Hospital today at 06:40 pm and has been handed over to the team of doctors from Medanta Hospital, Gurugram for further medical care as per the order dated 21.07.2026 of Hon'ble High Court of Delhi," a statement from the Safdarjung Hospital said.

"Copies of all relevant medical records, investigation reports, and treatment documents have been handed over to the receiving medical team to ensure continuity of care," the statement said. PTI
