you have forgiven them, but will these children ever forgive you?" he asked.

Recalling his visit to injured student protesters, Thackeray said the accounts of fractured limbs, torn clothes and alleged police excesses had "sent shivers down his spine." He accused security personnel of using nail-embedded batons, pellet guns and tear gas against peaceful demonstrators.

Furthermore, he demanded families of students who allegedly died by suicide following repeated NEET paper leak incidents.

Drawing a contrast over the government's approach to dialogue, Thackeray said: "The government has no qualms about holding talks with extremists or Pakistan, but it lacks the basic willingness to communicate with the youth of its own country."

Speaking in Pune at an event marking the death anniversary of Lokmanya Tilak, where union Home Minister Amit Shah felicitated National Security Adviser Ajit Doval, Thackeray also took a swipe at the ruling Unrest," he said that the current leadership had generated widespread public anger against themselves.

Echoing his father's criticism, Shiv Sena (UBT) MLA Aaditya Thackeray alleged that the authorities had unleashed a "state-sponsored reign of terror" against students.

In a post on X, Aaditya claimed that peaceful protesters in the national capital were met with pellet guns, electric shock batons, tear gas and nail-studded lathis, while police in Bihar allegedly deployed AK-47 rifles to disperse student demonstrations.
