

Class 7 student attempts to end life after alleged classroom punishment

The Hindu Bureau
BENGALURU

A 13-year-old class 7 student allegedly attempted to end his life after reportedly being made to stand outside his classroom for an entire day over a minor act of mischief at a private school in west Bengaluru.

The incident occurred on Tuesday under the jurisdiction of the Jnanabharathi Police Station. The boy was rushed to a hospital by his family and is currently undergoing treatment. The police said his condition is stable.

Acting on a complaint by the boy's father, the Jnanabharathi police have registered an FIR under Section 75 of the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015 and Sections 115(2), 118(I) and 351 (2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023 against the administrative secretary, principal and a few teachers of St. Philomena Memorial School in Mariyappanapalya.

The parents alleged that the prolonged punishment caused severe emotional distress to the child. After returning home, the boy allegedly attempted to end life and was saved in the nick of time by his brother.

In the complaint, the complainant alleged that his son, a class 7 student studying under the Right to Education quota, was beaten by the school's administrative secretary, the principal and two to three teachers on Tuesday after they allegedly became angry with him for an unspecified reason.

The complaint further states that the child had repeatedly expressed reluctance to attend school over the past few days, alleging that he was being harassed by teachers, the principal, the school secretary and even other students' parents. The complainant said he had been consoling his son and had promised to shift him to another school after the current academic year.

Manjushree, principal at St. Philomena's Memorial School, said she was told by other teachers that the boy in question hit another boy, suspecting that his project work was stolen. "The teacher asked him to bring his parents the next day. The boy feared bringing his parents," she said.

Rekha, Block Education Officer, Bangalore South 1, said she visited the school, examined the CCTV footage of the incident and met the parents and teachers. "I will soon submit a report to the higher officials," she said.

Woman detained for 'stealing' conductor's bag on BMTC bus

The Hindu Bureau
BENGALURU

A woman was detained after she was allegedly caught stealing a BMTC conductor's duty bag on a moving Bengaluru city bus, with a video of the incident going viral on social media.

The incident took place on Wednesday on a BMTC bus operating from Banavara to K.R. Puram. The bus was driven by Dinesh Kumar while Naveen Kumar R. was on duty as the conductor.

According to BMTC officials, the woman allegedly boarded the bus as a passenger and, while the conductor was distracted, removed his duty bag containing his ticket book, ID documents and cash collection before concealing it inside her own bag.

The conductor soon noticed that his bag was missing and confronted the woman. Fellow passengers and the bus crew alerted the police.

With the assistance of a woman traffic police officer and a woman law and order police officer, the woman was taken to the K.R. Puram Police Station. During a search, the police allegedly recovered the conductor's duty bag from her belongings. However, the conductor claimed that the cash kept inside the bag was missing.

The police registered a Non-Cognisable Report (NCR) against the woman. They also recorded the Aadhaar details and mobile phone numbers of three persons who were accompanying her.
