

Suspected tiger sighting prompts safety advisory in Arunachal's Longding

Rajib Dutta | TNN

Dibrugarh: A reported sighting of a large carnivore, suspected to be a tiger, along the Longding-Bimlapur Road between Longding town and Longsom village in Arunachal Pradesh, has prompted the forest department to issue a public advisory.

According to the advisory issued on August 25 by Longding range forest officer Dani Taker, a verbal report of the suspected sighting was received around 7.15pm on August 24. Forest personnel immediately visited the area for verification.

Officials observed signs indicative of a large cat, but the department said the animal could not be confirmed as a tiger because dry ground conditions had left insufficient clear and conclusive evidence. The department urged residents, particularly those living near forest areas, to exercise "utmost caution and vigilance". People were advised to avoid unnecessary movement through forests and dense vegetation, especially during the early morning, evening and night, and not to travel alone in isolated areas. Residents were also cautioned against approaching, chasing, provoking or surrounding wild animals, or attempting to photograph or record them. In case of an encounter, people should maintain a safe distance, avoid sudden movements and move towards a safe location without confronting the animal. "Any fresh sighting, pugmark, live-stock predation, scratch marks or other suspected signs of a large carnivore should be immediately reported," the advisory said.

The Forest Department appealed to residents not to circulate unverified information, rumours or misleading photographs on social media. Parents and livestock owners were asked to ensure that children, elderly persons and animals do not venture unattended near forest areas.

Scam accused K'taka min's fate hangs in balance

Bengaluru/New Delhi: Karnataka CMD K Shivakumar Thursday said he met and briefed Rahul Gandhi in New Delhi on the facts of the Valmiki Corporation scam, which has cast a shadow on state cabinet, with CBI seeking sanction to prosecute planning and statistics minister B Nagendra in the case. Even though Shivakumar publicly defended Nagendra, he confirmed that Congress was weighing changes to the cabinet. TNN

Indian Bank organises VBX Customer Meet in Kolkata

Indian Bank organised a Virtual Banking Experience (VBX) Customer Meet at Kolkata, for a select group of VBX Spark customers. The event was aimed at creating greater awareness about VBX and highlighting its features, benefits and personalised digital banking experience. The programme was chaired by Vallery Rath, CGM, TMO & Digital Business, Planning & Business Intelligence, Marketing & Corporate Communication, Indian Bank. She highlighted the bank's continued focus on customer-centric digital transformation and the importance of providing seamless, convenient and personalised banking services through technology. The programme commenced with a welcome address by Neelmani Bhardwaj, field general manager, FGMO Kolkata. He elaborated on the objective of the VBX initiative and its role in bringing banking services closer to customers through a more convenient and technology-enabled experience. The event was attended by the zonal managers of Asansol, Barasat, Chinsurah, Kolkata Central, Kolkata North, Kolkata South and Midnapore Zone besides executives from the Corporate Office.

Bank of Maharashtra opens its 79th branch in West Bengal and zonal manager, Kolkata Zone, in presence of Soumen Adhikari, branch manager, Arambagh Branch, staff members and customers who were there on the occasion. About the recent branch expansion in West Bengal, Dinkar said, "Our core vision is to make banking more accessible, inclusive, and people centric. We aim to bring comprehensive banking services directly to the doorstep of every citizen, ensuring that individuals, families, and small businesses can access financial solutions with maximum ease and minimum hassle. Through a strong network of 82 branches across the Kolkata Zone, we are building a robust banking infrastructure that supports entrepreneurship and empowers MSMEs. We expect people to visit our new branch and avail the unique products as well as digital services." The on-boarding of customers has been made seamless with Video-KYC facility even on Sunday and holidays.

Eastern Railway GM chairs weekly review meeting

Gitika Pandey, general manager of Eastern Railway, chaired a weekly review meeting at Eastern Railway Headquarters, Kolkata, alongside all PHODs, DRMs, and branch officers. During the meeting, she reiterated that passenger safety, security, and convenience are ER's top priorities, issuing strict directions to fast-track all pending operational and infrastructure projects. In recognition of exemplary vigilance, the GM presented Appreciation Certificates to CT Mahipal Singh and Constable Hanuman Dhanka of RPSF/12 BN/B Coy. Deployed on duty at Jasidih Railway Station on August 15, the alert personnel promptly detected a track fracture following a loud sound after a train's departure. Their immediate reporting enabled technical teams to swiftly secure the track with a fishplate and divert platform traffic safely without interrupting overall train operations. She commended the staff for their alertness and steadfast dedication to passenger safety.
