Varun Shrivastava: If 14 of the 20 Sena (UBT) MLAs split, it would be a major setback for the Uddhar Thackeray-led party, which has already lost six of its nine Lok Sabha MPs to Shinde's Sena in June.

Shiv Sena (UBT), however, says that Operation Tiger 3.0 had begun and that 14 Sena (UBT) MLAs would join the party. "Wait for some time," Shinde says. "More than 14 MLAs will come to him (Shinde), Eknath Shinde does not speak, he only moves his hands on his beard."

has denied any chance of a fresh split in the party and said the MELA is baseless. Sena (UBT) MLA Kulshrestha said since the Maharashtra reservation and OBC protests are on, Shinde's party is spreading rumours about a split in the Sena (UBT) to divert attention. 'None of the MLAs from Sena (UBT) will quit or leave the party. These are all this has been admitted by Uddhav Thackeray's son Aaditya himself. When Ekant Shinde moves his hands or his beard, then Operation Tagger is a success,' Patil had said.

In response, Shiv Sena (UBT) MP Patil said that those who had joined Shinde have been bought for Rs 50 crore
