CM lauds BJP's victory in ULB polls as 'historic'

Jaipur, Sep 24 (FN Representative)

Rajasthan Chief Minister Bhajanlal Sharma on Thursday termed BJP's performance in the recent urban local body elections as "historic" and claimed that the Congress's support base is steadily shrinking. Talking to reporters in Bikaner, Sharma also took a swipe at Congress leaders, saying they were busy "launching" their sons. "The Congress' support base is continuously shrinking. Today, it is left in only a few states and in the future it will be nowhere because Congress leaders are busy launching their sons," Sharma said. The chief minister said the mandate in the urban local body elections reflected people's support for the BJP. "The hard work of our workers and the trust and affection of the people will continue to be with us in the future as well," he said. Sharma also targeted former chief minister Ashok Gehlot, saying he was unable to accept the BJP's performance in the civic polls. "He has lost his own ward and is angry with Congress state president Govind Singh Dotasra, but is blaming others for the defeat. Gehlot should analyse this crushing defeat," Sharma said.

Earlier, Sharma attended a programme in Bikaner where he watched Prime Minister Narendra Modi's interaction with participants of the 'Seva Sankalp' motorcycle rally through video conference. Sharma also interacted with the motorcycle riders who reached Bikaner and enquired about their experiences. Addressing a gathering, the chief minister said Modi had devoted his life to public service and the 'Seva Sankalp Yatra', inspired by him, would encourage youths towards selfless service, discipline and social responsibility. "The Seva Sankalp Yatra will connect our youths with selfless service, discipline and social responsibilities," Sharma said. He flagged off a 'Kalash Yatra' and the motorcycle rally heading from Vadnagar to Varanasi. Food and Civil Supplies Minister Sumit Godara, MLAs and other public representatives were present at the programme.

BJP chief Nabin to visit Jaipur today

Jaipur, Sep 24 (FN Representative)

BJP national president Nitin Nabin will visit Jaipur on Friday and address a programme to felicitate party councillors and other representatives who won the recent urban local body elections, state general secretary Shravan Singh has said. Nabin will begin his visit by participating in a cleanliness drive at Albert Hall at 7.30 am as part of the party's 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan', organised to mark Prime Minister Narendra Modi's birthday, Singh said. He will later attend a programme at Dadiya village in Bagru at 11 am to mark the birth anniversary of Deendayal Upadhyaya. BJP councillors and candidates from the recent urban local body elections will be felicitated at the event, which the party expects to be attended by around 50,000 workers, Singh said.

The ruling BJP in Rajasthan has won the posts of mayor, chairperson and president in 197 of the 301 urban local bodies for which results have been declared. They make more than twice the Congress tally of 94. The result of remaining bodies will be declared on Friday. Nabin will also launch the BJP's campaign for the upcoming panchayat elections from Dadiya by flagging off 90 campaign vehicles, which will travel to panchayats across Rajasthan to highlight the welfare and rural development schemes of the BJP governments at the Centre and in the state, Bagri said. At 2.30 pm, Nabin will attend a youth dialogue programme at Birla Auditorium near Statue Circle, where he will interact with young people and share his views on the current national situation. BJP state president Madan Rathore, Chief Minister Bhajanlal Sharma, state general secretary (organisation) and other senior party leaders will attend the programmes, Singh said.

Kota: Cong councillor booked ahead of Sep 25 mayoral elections

Kota, Sep 24 (Agency)

Kota police has booked a Congress councillor on charges of making false promises and cheating, ahead of the September 25 mayoral elections, officials said on Thursday. A team from the district medical department on Wednesday sealed the healthcare centre run by the councillor, citing a lack of qualifications for medical practice. Speaking to local media, Siyaram Verma, a newly elected Congress councillor from ward 42, refuted the allegations, asserting political motives behind the crackdown. He claimed he has a background in nursing and has operated the establishment for 20 years, providing basic services such as administering injections and drips based strictly on prescription slips issued by registered doctors. Acting on the report by Kota chief medical health officer (CMHO), the police on Wednesday lodged a case against Verma under sections 318 (4), 319 (2), 271, 272 of the BNS and Section 15 of the Indian Medical Council Act, 1956, Kunhadi Circle Inspector Devesh Bhardwaj said. A medical department team, acting on a complaint filed earlier on the same day, inspected Verma's healthcare centre. The centre was found closed, following which health officials pasted a notice under the Clinical Establishments Act onto the premises before sealing it.

It was alleged in the complaint that the healthcare centre was operating without a valid medical degree or registration. The complaint further detailed that improper disposal of biomedical waste at the site posed a risk of spreading infectious diseases in the surrounding neighbourhood. Following the inspection, the CMHO filed a report with Kunhadi police station and subsequently an FIR was registered against the Congress councillor on Wednesday evening. Kota Congress city president Rakhi Gautam termed the action against the party councillor a mean "trick of pressure politics" by the BJP, already in majority with 57 ward councillors in the corporation board and claimed her party councillors and workers would never come under such pressure. Gautam asserted that local authorities, administration, and financial resources are being used to exert political pressure and threaten Congress representatives with coercive actions against their personal businesses and establishments.

She also claimed Congress councillors were initially approached to switch allegiance and join the BJP. Gautam characterised the sealing of Verma's clinic as a direct outcome of this alleged "pressure politics" to influence the outcome of the upcoming municipal Mayoral and Deputy Mayoral elections. Verma pointed out the clinic had remained non-operational since September 14 after the municipal election result was declared. He further alleged that the action is a targeted attempt to exert pressure on Congress representatives ahead of the upcoming Mayor and Deputy Mayor elections. Notably, BJP emerged as the party in the majority with 57 winning councillors against Congress's 39 and 4 Independents in the 100-ward municipal corporation election held on Sept 11.
