The Second

lives of our people through our efforts," he said.

The summit was attended, among others, by Chinese President Xi Jinping and Russian President Vladimir Putin. Modi met them informally during a group photograph session for the leaders. Xi and Putin are expected to attend the summit of the BRICS leaders in New Delhi on September 12-13.

Underlining the need for "robust and reliable connectivity", Modi said, "India supports with this resolve: From shared geography to shared opportunities, from vision to outcomes, and from government-driven cooperation to people-driven partnership."

"With this belief and this commitment, India is ready to contribute to the common journey of the SCO family," he said.

Pakistan will be hosting the next SCO summit in 2027, and India's participation will be watched closely by members of the grouping.
