Office hoarding removed, Abhishek says will move HC against police 'trespass'

THE MAMATA Banerjee faction of the TMC Thursday accused the Kolkata Police of "hooliganism" after a commotion ensued at party MP Abhishek Banerjee's Camac Street office in Kolkata when a team of municipal officials, accompanied by a huge contingent of police personnel, removed the party's hoarding atop the office building.

Police said they have detained 12 people in connection with incident.

The Diamond Harbour MP alleged that officials of Kolkata Municipal Corporation and police "illegally" barged into his office and pushed and heckled him and other party leaders, including MP Derek O'Brien.

The incident began around 4 pm when a team of KMC officials and police officers reached the MP's office on Camac Street in central Kolkata. TMC Rajya Sabha MP Derek O'Brien and other party leaders, who were present there, tried to speak with the officials, but failed to convince them. A little later, Abhishek Banerjee reached the spot, and an altercation ensued between him and the officials.

"This is a private premise. You cannot enter. This is trespassing. Show me the complaint letter. You have to show relevant papers and serve us a notice first. I will file a case," Abhishek was heard saying to the officials.

According to government officials, the hoarding was illegal, and KMC had received a complaint. Later, police tried to enter the premises but were stopped by TMC workers and private security guards. Finally, around 5.30 pm, the police personnel were able to enter the building and removed the hoarding.

The TMC accused the Kolkata Police of hooliganism. "In a brazen display of hooliganism, today Kolkata Police barged into Abhishek Banerjee's office with an ILLEGAL NOTICE... Tomorrow, the party will move court against this brutality," it said.

NABARD Leadership & Regional Head Headline Gramsabha & Financial Literacy Camp at Amguri

In a landmark outreach event marking Vigilance Awareness Week, the Amguri Branch played host to an esteemed delegation of senior leadership from the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD) alongside regional banking leadership. The collaborative event successfully merged a comprehensive Gramsabha with an intensive Financial Literacy Camp, drawing significant participation from local villagers, farmers, and community leaders.

The distinguished panel of dignitaries included Shri M.K. De, General Manager of NABARD, accompanied by Shri D. Biswas, Assistant General Manager (AGM) of NABARD, Shri R. Majhi, District Development Manager (DDM) of NABARD, and Prosenjit Roy, Regional Manager (RM) of Jalpaiguri. Their collective presence underscored a unified commitment to grassroots economic empowerment, transparent financial practices, and robust rural banking outreach.

Addressing the packed gathering during the Gramsabha, Shri M.K. De highlighted the paramount importance of vigilance in public and personal financial dealings. He noted that Vigilance Awareness Week serves as an essential reminder for every citizen to champion integrity, eradicate corruption, and actively participate in building transparent community institutions.

Regional Manager Prosenjit Roy also shared insights on the bank's active role in extending supportive financial services to the doorsteps of rural households, emphasizing community-centric growth and accountability.
