9 passengers killed in Yamuna Expressway bus fire tragedy

PTI, NOIDA: Nine passengers were burnt to death when a bus on its way from Delhi to Uttar Pradesh's Mahoba caught fire on the Yamuna Expressway in Greater Noida, officials said on Thursday.

The bus driver and conductor have been arrested in connection with the incident that occurred late Wednesday night. They allegedly refused to stop the bus despite being alerted about a burning smell and told passengers, "Die if you want to, but we won't stop the bus," according to the FIR.

As the flames erupted and smoke began to fill the bus, which was carrying 35 passengers, a frantic rush to find a way out followed. The driver and the conductor managed to flee.

The officials said that according to preliminary investigation, the fire might have been caused by a spark or blast in the air-conditioning system of the bus.

President Droupadi Murmu, Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath condoled the loss of lives in Charred remains of a sleeper bus after it caught fire on the Yamuna Expressway in the Greater Noida area, killing nine passengers, in Noida the incident.

Chief Fire Officer Pradeep Kumar said the bus, bearing registration number BR32PA8647, was travelling from Kashmir Gate in New Delhi towards Mahoba when it caught fire near the 33-km milestone on the expressway in the Jewar police station area.

"On receiving information, police officials, along with local police personnel, a rescue tender, a fire tender stationed at the Jewar toll plaza and four other fire tenders immediately reached the spot and doused the fire," Kumar said.

"More than 20 passengers were rescued safely during the operation. When the police and fire service personnel entered the bus amid the smoke, nine people were found dead inside, apparently due to burns or suffocation," he added.

Kumar said a preliminary investigation indicated that a spark or blast in the air-conditioning system of the bus might have caused the engine lubricant oil to catch fire, following which the blaze spread rapidly.

Additional District Magistrate (ADM) Ajeet Kumar Singh told reporters that the incident occurred around 11:20 pm on Wednesday.

"The fire was caused by a short circuit. There were 35 passengers in the bus and nine people lost their lives in the incident. After receiving first aid, the injured were transported to Mahoba in a special vehicle," he said.

"There were approximately 15 people who were sent to Mahoba in a special vehicle, while some left in private vehicles. One woman remains hospitalised and is undergoing treatment at Arogya Hospital," he added.

Singh said the bodies have been sent to a mortuary.

Police said they are making efforts to identify the nine deceased.

Bihar: Group behaves indecently with girl in public, 4 arrested

PTI, SAMASTIPUR (BIHAR): A girl was allegedly harassed in public by a group of people who behaved indecently with her in Bihar's Samastipur district, following which four accused were arrested, police said on Thursday.

The incident bore a stark resemblance to cases of molestation reported in Jamui and Darbhanga over the last several days.

The latest incident came to light on Monday after a video purportedly showing three-four people behaving indecently with the girl went viral on social media. PTI could not independently verify the authenticity of the video.

Car-truck collision kills 4 in Jamshedpur Jharkhand minister's daughter Trisha among deceased

People gather at the site after a car rammed into a stationary truck, in Jamshedpur

PTI, JAMSHEDPUR/RANCHI: Jharkhand minister Dipika Pandey Singh's daughter Trisha was among four people killed when the car they were travelling in rammed into a stationary truck in Jamshedpur on Thursday, police said.

The accident took place on Marine Drive Road within Sonari police station area in the early hours, they said.

"At least four people, including Rural Development and Panchayati Raj Minister Dipika Pandey Singh's daughter Trisha, have been killed. The others have been identified as Sarthak Agarwal, Naman Gupta and Vanshika Khandelwal," Sonari police station officer-in-charge Sanjay Suman told PTI.

DSP Manoj Thakur said all four occupants of the car were killed on the spot.

Visuals from the accident site showed the truck parked on the right side of the four-lane highway, close to the divider, with a small tree branch placed at its rear, indicating that it had broken down and could not be moved. No reflector or warning signage was seen on the road, while the car was found mangled after ramming into the truck.

The mortal remains of Trisha Singh were brought to Ranchi in the afternoon after post-mortem at MGM Hospital in Jamshedpur.

CBI arrests Mahadev betting app kingpin

PTI, NEW DELHI: The CBI has arrested alleged kingpin in the Mahadev Online Betting Application case, Abhishek Kumar, who was on the run, after he arrived from Dubai at Rajiv Gandhi International Airport in Hyderabad, officials said Thursday.

The agency alleged that Kumar played an active role in operating online betting and gambling activities under Mahadev Book, coordinating betting panels, collecting funds and acquiring immovable assets in Dubai using proceeds allegedly generated from betting and gambling, the agency spokesperson said in a statement.

The agency said it seized incriminating material from Kumar during a search conducted after his arrest.

"The seized material prima facie shows his active role in the operation of the Mahadev Betting App and he worked closely with other main accused namely Saurabh Chandrakar and Shubham Soni," the statement said.

Kumar was produced before a local court in Hyderabad following his arrest, and the CBI obtained three days of transit remand.

He was subsequently taken to Raipur and produced before a court there, which granted two days of police custody, according to the spokesperson.

The Mahadev app, also known as the Mahadev Online Book (MOB), is primarily promoted by two Chhattisgarh-based absconding businessmen - Sourabh Chandrakar and Ravi Uppal. It is alleged to have generated proceeds of crime worth Rs 80,000 crore since 2019.
