Brazil president attacks UN as leaders push back on wars and global crises

Lula says world body lost credibility; Gaza, Cuba and Black Sea attacks dominate UNGA opening

UNITED NATIONS

BRAZILIAN President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva on Tuesday urged world leaders to take stronger action to address intensifying conflicts, saying the UN's credibility had "never been lower" as he addressed the General Assembly ahead of US President Donald Trump.

"The UN is failing in one of its highest missions: to save humanity from the scourge of war," Lula said, calling for the organisation to recover its capacity for dialogue and mediation. He also called for reform of the UN Security Council, saying the world was witnessing a new arms race. Lula, whose remarks came weeks before Brazil's elections, also warned against foreign interference in his country's affairs. "Brazilian democracy belongs to Brazilians. Brazil will continue to be a sovereign country," he said.

Meanwhile, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan meanwhile called for the immediate reconstruction of Gaza and urged world leaders to exert greater pressure on Israel. "We must begin the reconstruction of Gaza immediately," Erdogan said, while Jordan's King Abdullah II warned that Israel's "expansionist appetite" had become a regional threat.

"This Israeli government's expansionist appetite is now a regional threat," Abdullah said, pointing to Israel's actions in Gaza, the occupied West Bank and southern Syria.

Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez also hit back at Trump after the US president told the UN that Cuba "will fall".

Cuban delegates left the General Assembly hall during Donald Trump's speech. "The US government is incapable of accepting that Cuba is and has the right to be a full sovereign and independent country," Rodriguez said on X, adding that "none of the falsehoods by the Donald Trump at the UN can deny that fact."

Erdogan called Black Sea attacks on commercial vessels "unacceptable", regardless of who was responsible. AFP/AP

US-Denmark-Greenland agreement signed

UNITED NATIONS: Donald Trump on Tuesday signed an agreement with Denmark and Greenland to strengthen Arctic and North Atlantic security, easing tensions over his calls for US control of the territory. The deal will bolster the US military presence while keeping Greenland under Danish sovereignty. Trump said the US would develop a large military presence, including two major bases. Greenland and Denmark said the agreement recognises their sovereignty and self-determination while strengthening security for the island, Denmark and the US.

UN chief calls for world built on interdependence

UNITED NATIONS

UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres pleaded for "a world built on interdependence" as he made his final address on Tuesday to a yearly gathering of world leaders convening to face a formidable menu of challenges — from climate change and war to inequality and artificial intelligence. The UN leader has long implored leaders not to give up on cooperation and shared decision-making in the face of accelerating global challenges and increasing great-powers competition. Tuesday's message at the UN General Assembly took on additional urgency because he leaves office at the end of this year.

"The fault lines in our world are widening," he said, citing raging wars, risingtemperatures and artificial intelligence, among other matters. Instead of letting the future continue to veer toward fragmentation, transactionalism and mistrust, he called for "a world built on interdependence – and sustained by a dense web of economic, political, social and technological connections." His speech opened the main portion of the world's biggest diplomatic meeting of the year. Leaders from the UN's 193 member countries address each other and the international community and air their hopes, plans and grievances. Guterres also rebuked might-makes-right thinking, telling superpowers to recognise "that their power isn't so super." AP

Sri Lanka court convicts 15 over 2019 Easter bombings

COLOMBO

A Sri Lankan court convicted 15 men on Tuesday over their involvement in the 2019 Easter Sunday bombings, which killed more than 260 people and wounded about 500.

The April 21 attacks targeted three churches and three hotels across the island nation during Easter services and celebrations. The bombings, which were inspired by the Islamic State group, were among the deadliest attacks in Sri Lanka's history. They killed 42 foreigners and devastated communities across the country.

A three-judge High Court panel delivered the verdict amid tight security, with hundreds of police officers deployed around the courthouse.

Authorities filed 23,270 charges in 2021 against 24 suspects accused of planning or inspiring the attacks. The charges included murder, conspiracy to commit terrorism, and firearms and explosives offenses under the Prevention of Terrorism Act. None of those believed to have directly participated in the attacks are alive.

Two Sri Lanka-based Islamic militant groups were accused of carrying out the bombings.

Sri Lanka's Catholic Church has claimed, without providing evidence, that those identified so far as perpetrators are not the masterminds behind the bombings, and that there was a bigger conspiracy behind the attacks. A parliamentary committee found that police and intelligence officials failed to act on repeated intelligence warnings of the attacks. AP

Iran toughens conditions for ending Iran war

TEHRAN

IRANIAN Revolutionary Guards spokesman Hossein Mohebi said on Tuesday that Tehran had hardened its conditions for ending the war with the United States following the collapse of a June deal aimed at ending hostilities.

"They broke the agreement and committed another vicious act. We have therefore toughened our conditions," Mohebi told AFP in a rare interview in Tehran. "We are not their playthings, and they cannot unilaterally violate an agreement they signed whenever they please." He added that the US had "no choice" but to accept Iran's conditions.

During the interview, Mohebi outlined Iran's view of the nearly seven-month Middle East war and the prospects for ending it as diplomatic efforts stall.

In June, Iran and the US agreed on a deal covering oil sanctions, the naval blockade, frozen Iranian assets and an end to the war, including in Lebanon. AFP
